FRONT OFFICE PROFILES

MARC BADAIN

President

Marc Badain was named president of the Athletics on March 6, 2025.

Before joining the A's, Badain served as President of Oak View Group Las Vegas – Arena and Entertainment, where he oversaw the planning of a multi-billion-dollar integrated resort and arena project in Las Vegas.

Badain spent three decades with the NFL's Raiders, including seven years as team president. He was instrumental in their relocation to Las Vegas and led the team responsible for the successful development of Allegiant Stadium. His career with the Raiders began in 1991 as a training camp intern. Over the years, he advanced through the ranks, eventually becoming the team's chief financial officer in 2004 and later its president.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Badain holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Emory University and an MBA from the University of California's Walter A. Haas School of Business. He is deeply committed to community engagement and serves on the boards of several organizations, including Opportunity Village, the Grant a Gift Autism Foundation, the University of Nevada Sports Management Executive Board, and the Las Vegas Bowl Committee. Badain and his wife, Amy, have three children, Ali, Bernie and Zach.

Billy Beane enters his fourth season as Senior Advisor to the Managing Partner after running the Club's baseball operations dating back to 1997. He spent 18 seasons as General Manager followed by a seven-year stint as Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations.

Under his watch, the A's compiled a 2072-1874 (.525) record over 25 seasons including seven American League West titles (2000; 2002-03; 2006; 2012-13, 2020) and four AL Wild Card spots (2001; 2014; 2018; 2019).

Beane received MLB's inaugural Executive of the Year award in 2018 and was named Major League Executive of the Year by Baseball America two times (2002; 2013) and The Sporting News Executive of the Year three times (1999; 2012; 2018). He also earned MLB.com's Greatness in Baseball Yearly (GIBBY) Award as the 2012 MLB Executive of the Year and the 2012 Legacy Awards' Rube Foster Award as AL Executive of the Year, presented by the Negro League Baseball Museum.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Beane attended Mt. Carmel High School and UC San Diego, where he studied economics. Billy and his wife, Tara, reside in Danville, Calif., with their twins, Brayden and Tinsley. His daughter, Casey, is a graduate of Kenyon (Ohio) College.

DENNIS ECKERSLEY

Special Assistant to the President

Dennis Eckersley enters his ninth season as Special Assistant to the President. In this role, Eckersley assists in promoting the Athletics brand.

Eckersley pitched 24 seasons in the majors and had 197 wins, 100 complete games and 390 saves in a Hall of Fame. By the time he joined the A's, he had already pitched 12 seasons in the majors, logging a 151-128 record and a 3.67 ERA in 376 games, including 359 starts, with Cleveland, Boston and Chicago (NL). He tossed a no-hitter with the Indians on May 30, 1977, won 20 games for the Red Sox in 1978, and was a two-time All-Star as a starter. Eckersley joined the A's in 1987 and by the time his nine seasons in Oakland were over, he had redefined the role of closer, saving 320 games. He was a four-time All-Star with the A's and won both the American League MVP and Cy Young Awards in 1992 when he saved a career-high 51 games.

Eckersley also spent two seasons in St. Louis and finished his career with 50 games for Boston in 1998. Following his playing career, he joined NESN as a studio analyst in 2003 before moving to the broadcast booth, where he called Red Sox games from 2009-22.

ROLLIE FINGERS

Special Assistant to the President

Rollie Fingers enters his ninth season as Special Assistant to the President. In this role, Fingers assists in promoting the Athletics brand.

Fingers began his 17-year Hall of Fame career with the A's in 1968 and spent nine seasons in the Green and Gold. He saved 341 games in his career, including 136 as an Athletic, and was a seven-time All-Star. Fingers led the National League in saves from 1977-78 with San Diego and topped the American League in saves when he was named AL Most Valuable Player after saving 28 games and compiling a 1.04 ERA for Milwaukee. He was a three-time World Champion with the A's from 1972-74, earning World Series MVP honors in 1974 when he had two saves and a win against the Dodgers.

Fingers had his number 34 retired on July 5, 1993, and was an inductee in the inaugural class of the A's Hall of Fame in 2018.

DAVID FORST

General Manager

David Forst begins his 27th season with the Athletics and his fourth as the organization's head of baseball operations. Forst enters his 11th season as General Manager after being appointed to the position on Oct. 5, 2015. The A's have made 11 postseason appearances since Forst joined the organization in 2000, including six times in the last 13 seasons.

The A's 11 postseason appearances since Forst's arrival in the 2000 season are the seventh most among all Major League teams, trailing only New York-AL (21), Los Angeles-NL (17), St. Louis (16), Atlanta (16), Houston (12) and Boston (12).

In the 10 seasons since Forst was appointed General Manager, A's players have won 15 player of the week awards, five pitcher of the month awards, five rookie of the month awards, four reliever of the month awards, six gold gloves, two platinum gloves, two Silver Slugger awards, one home run title, one reliever of the year award, and one outstanding designated hitter award.

Forst runs all of the Club's baseball operations, including player acquisitions, contract negotiations and player evaluations, as well as overseeing all other day-to-day operations. Prior to his promotion, Forst spent 12 seasons as assistant general manager after serving as an assistant to the general manager and coordinator of professional scouting.

The 49-year-old Forst graduated Cum Laude from Harvard University in 1998 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology. He played baseball for the Crimson for four seasons and earned third team All-America honors as a senior. He also played for the Springfield (Ill.) Capitals of the Frontier League in 1998 and 1999 where he combined to hit .288 in 147 career games.

DAN FEINSTEIN

Assistant General Manager, Major League and International Operations

Dan Feinstein enters his 11th season as assistant general manager, Major League and international operations and 25th overall in the Athletics organization. He was promoted to assistant general manager after four years as director of professional scouting/baseball development. Feinstein's primary role is to assist David Forst in all aspects of baseball operations, including roster construction, contract negotiations, arbitration, trade analysis and the interpretation of MLB rules.

In addition, he oversees the A's international scouting efforts in Latin America, Asia and Europe, as well as the team's professional scouting staff.

This is Feinstein's second stint with the A's, having previously served in a variety of capacities from 1994-2004, including the role of assistant, amateur scouting and video coordinator. He spent the 2005 season as coordinator, baseball operations for the Los Angeles Dodgers and was director, baseball operations for the Tampa Bay Rays for six seasons from 2006-11 prior to rejoining the A's in 2012.

A native of Lafayette, Calif., he attended UC Davis and earned a degree in Medieval European History. Feinstein resides in Lafayette with his wife, Meghan, and two children, Will and Charlotte.

BILLY OWENS

Assistant General Manager/Director of Player Personnel

Billy Owens begins his 28th season with the Athletics and his 11th as assistant general manager/director of player personnel. He was promoted to the position after spending the previous 12 seasons as director of player personnel. Owens' responsibilities include providing input and recommendations for potential trades and free agent signings, along with evaluation in the area of amateur scouting.

Prior to moving into a front office position, Owens spent five seasons as a hitting coach in the A's minor league system, with stops at Southern Oregon (1999), Vancouver (2000-01) and Arizona (2002-03). In addition to his coaching duties, Owens also assumed scouting responsibilities as an area scout and was promoted to East Coast Scouting Coordinator in 2003.

A third-round pick (72nd overall) by the Baltimore Orioles in the 1992 June Draft, Owens played seven seasons of minor league ball with the Baltimore (1992-96) and Houston organizations (1997-98) before joining the A's as an area scout.

A native of San Jose, Calif., Owens attended the University of Arizona, where he played both baseball and football. He was a football, basketball and baseball standout at Bellarmine College Preparatory and is a member of the school's hall of fame. Billy O makes his off-season home in Scottsdale, Ariz.

ROB NABERHAUS

Assistant General Manager, Baseball Development and Technology

Rob Naberhaus is entering his 14th year with the Athletics and fourth as assistant general manager, baseball development and technology. In this role, he oversees all aspects of the data and technology development within baseball operations.

Naberhaus previously served as architect, then director of baseball systems from 2012-19, and senior director, baseball development and technology from 2020-21, and continues to oversee the design and creation of all analytics tools used by baseball operations. Prior to joining the A's, Rob spent four years with the Tampa Bay Rays in their baseball systems department. He had previously worked in IT consulting with Accenture from 2004-08.

A graduate of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, Naberhaus resides in Scottsdale, Ariz., with his wife, Erin, and son, Gareth.

ERIC KUBOTA

Director of Scouting

Eric Kubota is in his 41st season with the Athletics organization and his 25th as director of scouting.

Kubota has overseen the club's last 24 drafts that have produced dozens of players who have risen to the major leagues with various clubs, including current A's Hogan Harris (2018), Lawrence Butler (2018), Max Schuemann (2018), Tyler Soderstrom (2020), Zack Gelof (2020), Max Muncy (2021), Denzel Clarke (2021), Brett Harris (2021), Colby Thomas (2022), Jacob Wilson (2023), and Nick Kurtz (2024).

In 2025, Kubota was named the recipient of the Tony Gwynn Lifetime Achievement Award by Baseball America. In January 2014, he was honored as Scout of the Year by the Santa Clara County Hot Stove Committee, and in 2022 he was named the Scout of the Year by the Scout of the Year Foundation.

Prior to assuming his current position, Kubota served as the club's supervisor of international scouting for three seasons, overseeing the scouting staff and player evaluations in the Dominican Republic and Venezuela.

Kubota, 61, began his baseball career in June of 1984 while he was an undergraduate at the University of California, Berkeley, spending the better part of six seasons working in the A's media relations department. In November of 1989, he joined the baseball operations staff as an assistant director of scouting, handling daily administrative duties of the scouting department, including preparation work for the Rule 4, Rule 5 and June drafts, compiling the team's prospect book and preparing statistical information.

He was elevated to Pacific Rim coordinator in November of 1996, where he acted as a liaison between the A's and Asian baseball teams in addition to his scouting duties in Northern California and Hawaii.

Eric graduated from Cal in 1986 with a bachelor of arts degree in political science. He and his wife, Karen, have two children.

ED SPRAGUE

Director of Player Development

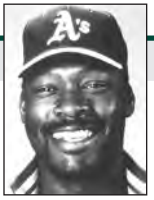

Entering his 11th season with the A's, 2026 will be Sprague's seventh season as director of player development after serving as assistant director of player development & coordinator of on-field analytics to director of player development during the 2019 season. He previously served the A's as instruction coordinator from 2016-18. He oversees the development and evaluation of players throughout the A's farm system, which consistently ranks among the best in the game. He also coordinates field instruction for the entire minor league system.

Sprague previously served as head coach at the University of Pacific from 2004-15, during which his teams posted an overall record of 250-406. During his tenure, 21 of his players were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, with multiple players currently active in the professional ranks. He guided Pacific to one of the best seasons in program history in 2010, finishing with a 31-23 overall record that included a new program record of 31 victories over Division I opponents. In addition to his on-field success, he spearheaded the campaign to build an on-campus home field for the Tigers, with Klein Family Field opening on April 18, 2006.

While he was a student-athlete at Stanford, the baseball program won back-to-back national titles in 1987 & 1988, and he was a member of Team USA Baseball that won an Olympic Gold Medal in Seoul in 1988. After being drafted by Toronto in the first round of the 1988 draft out of Stanford, Sprague played 11 years in the Major Leagues with the Blue Jays, A's, Pirates, Padres, Red Sox and Mariners. He was an integral part of the Blue Jays teams that won back-to-back World Series in 1992-93 and was named a National League All-Star in 1999 with the Pirates. Sprague and his wife Kristen reside in Lodi, Calif. They have four children: daughters Payton and Paris, and sons Jed and John.

DAVE STEWART

Special Assistant to Player Development

Athletics Hall of Famer Dave Stewart begins his second season as the A's special assistant to player development. In this role, Stewart assists director of player development Ed Sprague in addition to other members of the baseball operations department.

During Stewart's 16-year career, he spent eight seasons with the Green and Gold. He made one All-Star team (1989), won three World Series championships (1981, 1989, & 1993), two ALCS MVP awards (1990 & 1993), one World Series MVP (1989), and was awarded the Roberto Clemente Humanitarian Award in 1990. Stewart was inducted into the A's inaugural Hall of Fame in 2018 and his number 34 is retired by the club.

Born in Oakland and a graduate of St. Elizabeth High School, he spent six seasons in the majors with three teams before breaking through with the A's. He joined the A's in 1986 and won 20 games in four consecutive seasons from 1987 to 1990. The big-game pitcher went 8-3 with a 2.22 ERA in 14 Postseason starts, including two wins in the 1989 World Series when he earned MVP honors in the A's sweep of the Giants.

MARK MCGWIRE

Special Assistant to Player Development

Mark McGwire returns to the A's as a special assistant to player development. Originally drafted 10th overall by the A's in the June 1984 Draft, he played in 16 Major League seasons with Oakland (1986-97) and St. Louis (1997-2001), winning AL Rookie of the Year in 1987. In 12 seasons with the A's, McGwire hit 363 home runs, breaking the franchise record in 1996. He was elected to the A's Hall of Fame in 2019.

Following his playing career, McGwire served as a hitting coach for six seasons, three with the Cardinals (2010-12) and three with the Los Angeles Dodgers (2013-15). In 2016 he was named the San Diego Padres bench coach under manager Andy Green, a position he held through the 2018 season.

McGwire attended USC, where he was named The Sporting News National Player of the Year as well as an All-American and Pac-10 Player of the Year in 1984. That year, he also served as a member of Team USA at the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles.

Born in Pomona, Calif., McGwire resides in Orange County, Calif., with his wife, Stephanie, and their children: triplet girls Monet, Marlo and Monroe, and sons Max and Mason. He also has a son, Matt, from a previous marriage. Mason was drafted by the Chicago Cubs in the eighth round of the 2022 Draft.

MANNY COLÓN

Director of Minor League Operations

Manny Colón enters his fifth year as director of minor league operations for the A's. In this role, he oversees all minor league logistics, planning, budgeting, and daily operations for minor league players, coaches and staff throughout Spring Training, the regular season, and postseason, including the team's facility in Mesa, Ariz., and the club's relationships with its minor league affiliates.

Prior to joining the A's, Manny spent 19 seasons with the Miami Marlins, most recently as Director of Team Travel. He joined the Marlins in 2002 as a marketing intern before eventually working his way up to the role of Manager of Player Development & International Operations prior to being promoted to travel director in 2010.

A graduate of the University of Tennessee at Martin, Colón also has a master's in sport administration from St. Thomas University in Miami, Fla. He has been an adjunct professor and guest lecturer at various local universities over the past 10 years, and is currently on the advisory board of the Miracle League of Arizona, Scottsdale, Ariz. Kelvin, his brother, serves as an area scout in Florida for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

RAYMOND ABREU

Director of Latin American Operations

Raymond Abreu is entering his 32nd season with the Athletics and has served as the team's director of Latin American operations for the past 22 years.

In this dual role, Raymond oversees both the day-to-day working function of the Athletics Academy in La Victoria and also supervises player development and the A's scouting efforts throughout the Dominican Republic. He has been with the Athletics since the inception of the Academy in 1994.

Abreu concluded a five-year stint as the General Manager of the Toros del Este, a professional team in the Liga de Beisbol Dominicano which competes during the winter months. The Club were 2019-20 National and Caribbean Winter League Champions, establishing a winning record of 51 victories during a season. Abreu won the Executive of the Year awarded by the Dominican Republic Commissioner of Baseball. The team was the first in Dominican Republic history to achieve multiple winning streaks of 10 or more games within the same season. They also recorded a run differential of +68 during the 2019-20 season, the best in league history, and were one of only three teams in history to finish first in the regular season, excel in the round-robin, and clinch both the National and Caribbean Championships in the same season for a historic Triple Crown season.

He has also previously spent time as the GM of Leones de Escogido. Abreu holds a Business Management degree from Saint Peter's University. A native of Jersey City, N.J., Abreu resides in Santo Domingo, D.R., with his wife, Azalia, and three daughters, Isabella, Emma and Mila.

CHRIS PITTARO

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Chris Pittaro enters his 35th season in the A's organization, his 15th as a special assistant to the general manager. Prior to being named to his current position, Pittaro served as director of professional scouting for five years.

He spent the previous six seasons as national field coordinator after serving as an area scout and national cross checker with the Athletics since 1991.

In 2012, Pittaro was inducted into the Professional Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame.

Selected by the Detroit Tigers in the 1982 June First Year Player Draft, Pittaro made his Major League debut with the Tigers in 1985, batting .242 in 28 games. He was traded to the Minnesota Twins in 1986 and spent parts of the '86 and '87 seasons on the Twins big league roster. He retired during the 1988 season.

Pittaro attended the University of North Carolina from 1980-82 before signing with the Tigers following his junior season. After he retired as a player in 1988, he enrolled in Rider College in New Jersey where he obtained a bachelor of science degree in finance in 1991, graduating Summa Cum Laude. Pittaro is a native of Hamilton, N.J., and has three children: Erica, Giana and CJ, and one grandchild, Sean.

GRADY FUSON

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Grady Fuson, former Athletics scouting director and one of the game's most respected scouts and baseball executives, returned for his second stint with the A's in 2010 as a special assistant to the general manager.

After beginning his career as an area scout with the A's in 1982, he has now spent 34 seasons with the organization, including seven years as scouting director from 1995-2001.

Prior to his current stint with the Athletics, he served as vice president of scouting and player development with San Diego from 2006-09, after joining the Padres in 2005 as a special assistant to the general manager. His first stint with the A's ended in 2002, when he joined the Texas Rangers as assistant general manager, spending three seasons in charge of the Rangers scouting and player personnel.

In January of 2020, he was honored with the Legends in Scouting Award by the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation. In 2017, Fuson was named the recipient of the 10th annual Sheldon "Chief" Bender Award, which is given by Minor League Baseball to a person with distinguished service who has been instrumental in player development. He also was named the West Coast Scout of the Year at the 2017 Baseball Winter Meetings in Orlando, which is an award voted on by scouting directors across baseball. The Scout of the Year program—which was founded in 1984 by Tony Pacheco, Jim Russo and Hugh Alexander—recognized members of the scouting community for their excellence in scouting, years of service and professionalism in the performance of the job.

After a two-year stint playing in the minor leagues, Fuson became head baseball coach at the University of Puget Sound in Washington before originally joining the A's franchise. During his tenure in green and gold, he has played a prominent role in drafting such players as Eric Chavez, Tim Hudson, Mark Mulder and Barry Zito, which provided the impetus for the franchise to feature five playoff teams over a seven-year period from 2000-06.

STEVE SHARPE

Director, International Scouting

Steve Sharpe enters his 22nd year with the Athletics and fourth season as the director of international scouting. He was selected by the A's in the 11th round of the 2004 First-Year Player Draft out of the University of Central Missouri, where he was a First-Team All-American that same year, and later inducted into the UCM Baseball Diamond Club in 2019.

After spending seven seasons playing in the A's system, and achieving success as a three-time All-Star including the Northwest League (2004), Midwest League (2006) and Texas League (2007), he was hired by the A's, bringing his expertise as a player into the ranks of a professional scout. Sharpe's experience as a Venezuelan Winter League pitcher, coupled with his achievements in scouting, led him into the role of Special Assistant to Scouting and International Operations in 2020, covering all aspects of the A's International Scouting Department.

Sharpe resides near the Blue Ridge Mountains in Virginia, alongside his totally awesome wife, Laurel, and is blessed with three sons, Samson, Solomon, and Simon Peter.

PAMELA PITTS

Director of Baseball Administration

Pamela Pitts enters her 45th season in the organization and 34th as director of baseball administration. Her responsibilities include managing the day-to-day business side of the baseball operations department, including governing all major and minor league staff contract administration, player records, waivers, payroll issues and transactions. She started her baseball career with the A's in November of 1981 as the minor league and public relations secretary. Pamela resides in Danville, Calif., with her husband, Dan Dunn.

BEN LOWRY

Director, Research and Analytics

Ben Lowry enters his 12th season with the Athletics and fourth as director of research and analytics after spending three seasons as assistant director of research and analytics. In his current role, he oversees amateur draft analytics and provides input on potential player acquisition and transactions including trades, free agent signings, waiver claims and the Rule 5 draft. He also supports the implementation of new technologies at both the Major League and minor league level and oversees the intern hiring process. Prior to his time with the A's, Ben worked for the Houston Astros, Trackman Baseball and KPMG. A graduate of the University of Maryland, he currently resides in San Francisco.

HALEY ALVAREZ

Assistant Director, Scouting and Baseball Operations

Haley Alvarez enters her ninth season with the A's and her seventh as assistant director, scouting and baseball operations, where she leads the preparation and organization of MLB's Rule 4 Draft, completes assigned domestic and international scouting coverage and assists with the signing of international prospects. In addition to her day-to-day scouting responsibilities, Alvarez explores new sports science initiatives that aid in the development of professional players, assists with free agent signings and prepares and manages the baseball operations budgets.

She joined the A's as a scouting coordinator in 2017, becoming the first woman in the A's front office to be hired as a talent evaluator. Alvarez previously served as a baseball operations assistant with the Reds, following an internship with the Red Sox in 2016. She began her MLB career as a baseball operations intern with the Athletics in 2015.

The Bay Area native attended the Branson School in Ross, Calif., and is a graduate of the University of Virginia with a Bachelor of Science in Commerce from the McIntire School. Alvarez currently serves on the board of Family House San Francisco and resides in Marin County.

GREG LEDFORD

Assistant Director, Baseball Operations

Greg Ledford enters his ninth season with the Athletics and second as assistant director of baseball operations. In this role, he's primarily focused on day-to-day operations of the scouting department, with a specific focus on preparation for the MLB Draft. Additionally, Ledford assists with arbitration. A graduate of Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, he resides in Walnut Creek, with his wife, Parker.

Morabito's career in professional baseball spans four decades, dating back to 1970 when he served as a batboy for the New York Yankees. He worked in the Yankees public relations department for seven seasons, serving as an assistant from 1974-76 before taking over the director's duties in 1977. While with the Yankees, he managed the club's media relations efforts during the club's back-to-back World Championship seasons of 1977 and '78. Morabito joined the Athletics organization in the spring of 1980, handling dual roles as the club's director of public relations and traveling secretary. During his long career, he has been a part of six World Series teams, three with the A's and three with the Yankees.

MATT WEISS

Director, Clubhouse and Equipment Operations

Matt Weiss enters his 32nd season in the A's organization and his fifth as Director of Clubhouse and Equipment Operations. In this role, Weiss oversees all day-to-day operations of the home clubhouse at Sutter Health Park and Hohokam Stadium. He is just the fourth person to run the home clubhouse for the A's since 1968. Weiss spent the previous 17 years serving as umpire & clubhouse assistant after spending 10 years in the role of bat boy & clubhouse assistant. A Bay Area native, Weiss attended Moreau High School in Hayward and graduated from Cal State Hayward with a degree in recreation. Matt and his wife Susie have two children, Jack and Molly.

MIKE THALBLUM

Visiting Clubhouse Manager

The 2026 season marks Mike Thalblum's 46th season in the A's organization and his 33rd as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began his baseball career when he was 13 years old, serving as a clubhouse assistant in the team's spring training clubhouse in Phoenix. In 1985, Thalblum relocated to Oakland to work in the visiting clubhouse with Steve Vucinich, and then in 1992, moved across the hall to the home side where he worked with the late Frank Ciensczyk for two seasons. In 1994, he assumed his current position as the visiting clubhouse manager. A native of Scottsdale, Ariz., Mikey and his wife, Janine, make their home in Dublin, Calif., with their sons, Stewart Robert, who is named after former A's pitchers Dave Stewart and Bob Welch, and Jonathan David.

BRIAN DAVIS

Manager, Clubhouse and Equipment Operations

Brian Davis, who first joined the A's as a batboy in 1991, is entering his 36th season with the club and his fifth as manager of clubhouse operations after spending 27 seasons as the club's assistant equipment manager. He is responsible for assisting in the day-to-day operation of the clubhouse, ranging from all equipment needs and meal planning, to occasionally traveling with the team on road trips. A native of Newark, Calif., Davis is a graduate of Placer High School in Auburn, Calif., and later attended both Chico State and Cal State Hayward. He is married and lives with his wife, Pam, and their two children—son, Owen, and daughter, Sophia—in Goodyear, Ariz.

MIKE "CLIFFY" CLAVIN

Assistant Manager, Clubhouse and Equipment Operations

Mike Clavin, better known as "Cliffy," enters his 31st season as a member of the A's clubhouse staff. He first joined the A's as a ball boy in 1996 before becoming a clubhouse assistant in 2002. He served in that role until he was promoted to his current role as assistant manager of clubhouse and equipment operations in 2022. He lives in Dublin with his wife, Marissa, and their three children, Logan, Jacob, and Kennedy.

CHAD YACONETTI

Visiting Clubhouse & Umpires Attendant

Chad Yaconetti is entering his 18th season in the Athletics organization and his fifth as visiting clubhouse & umpires attendant. His first role with the A's was as assistant clubhouse manager for the team's minor league complex in Mesa, Ariz., before being promoted to Arizona clubhouse manager and ultimately joining the Major League staff in 2022. He resides in Gilbert, Ariz., with his wife, Alex, and their two children, Jack and Lyla.

SHAWN RIXTER

Clubhouse Assistant

ADAM RHODEN

Video Coordinator

Adam Rhoden begins his 33rd season with the A's organization and 23rd as the team's video coordinator. As a senior in high school, Rhoden first joined the team as an attendant in the home clubhouse. He served in that capacity from 1994-97 before moving to the visiting clubhouse as the main assistant and umpire attendant until 2003. During that time, he also assisted inside the A's player video room, eventually being promoted to his current position in 2004. As the A's video coordinator, Rhoden provides daily advance and video reports to the players and coaching staff and also travels full-time with the team. In addition to working for the A's, Adam served as the Golden State Warriors' assistant equipment manager from 1998-2002. A Bay Area native who grew up in Suisun, Rhoden attended UC Davis where he received a bachelor's degree in economics. He currently resides in San Ramon, Calif.

CATHERINE AKER

Senior Vice President, Marketing and Communications

Catherine Aker is in her 11th season with the Athletics, overseeing marketing, broadcasting, communications, and content. In her role, she leads brand strategy and fan engagement across multiple markets, focusing on growth, storytelling, and community connection.

In 2017, Aker became just the second female vice president in the Club's history and the first in nearly 30 years. She has been recognized as Oakland Digital's 2017 Community Leader, East Bay Women in Business' 2018 Emerging Leader, and one of the San Francisco Business Times' 2019 Most Influential Women in Bay Area Business. She was also named to the 2018 class of 40 Under 40 by both the San Francisco Business Times and Diablo Magazine. Aker began her career with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2001.

She holds a B.A. in Fine Arts and an M.B.A. from the University of Arizona.

VIKRANT BODALIA

Senior Vice President, Technology

As Senior Vice President, Technology for Athletics, Vik Bodalia leads enterprise technology strategy, security, and innovation ensuring scalable, secure, and business-aligned platforms that drive growth, efficiency, and competitive advantage. Bodalia's career spans 15+ years in sports, entertainment, and venue technology management, with a background in infrastructure, network, design and implementation across multiple verticals including audio, video, and broadcast, operations, cybersecurity, cellular, and wireless technology.

Prior to joining Athletics in 2025, Bodalia spent 6 years with Legends Global at Allegiant Stadium, and 4 years with MGM Resorts at T-Mobile Arena, where he led technology vision to design and integration to execution. Prior to joining MGM, he held technology management roles at the National Basketball Association leading league technology initiatives.

Respected as a credible voice in aligning business tactics with sound technical strategy and creatively embracing the upside of innovation while minimizing risk, Bodalia's focus was to push various events at Allegiant Stadium and T-Mobile Arena as industry leader in sports, entertainment, and venue technology.

ROSS BOWEN

Senior Vice President, Ballpark Development

Ross Bowen enters his sixth season with the A's after joining in 2021 as Director of Project Finance. 2026 will be his third season serving as Vice President of Ballpark Development, where he oversees the A's efforts to construct a new state of the art ballpark in Las Vegas.

Prior to joining the A's, Ross spent three years as an investment banking analyst with Morgan Stanley. He moved to the Bay Area in 2016 and joined the private equity firm TPG as an associate, serving in this role for three years before attending Stanford University's Graduate School of Business.

Ross holds a B.A. in Economics from Williams College and an M.B.A. from Stanford University. He resides in Las Vegas, Nev.

MATT CAUSEY

Senior Vice President, Finance

Matt Causey joined the A's in August 2022 as the Club's Vice President of Finance. He is responsible for financial management of the organization, overseeing accounting, payroll, budgeting and financial planning and forecasting.

Matt received his B.S. in business administration from the University of Colorado at Boulder and is a California CPA (inactive). Prior to joining the A's, Matt spent 14 years with the San Francisco Giants, most recently as the club's Vice President of Finance, and three years in the assurance practice at PricewaterhouseCoopers in San Francisco.

A Bay Area native, Matt resides in Walnut Creek with his wife, Alexis, daughter, Lennon, and sons, Emmet and Cameron.

D'LONRA ELLIS

Chief Legal Officer

D'Lonra Ellis serves as Chief Legal Officer for the Athletics. She previously served as the A's Vice President and General Counsel from 2019-21 and as its Assistant General Counsel from 2017-18, and has held similar roles for the San Jose Earthquakes.

In her role with the A's, she manages the team's day-to-day legal matters, including its corporate governance, labor and employment, intellectual property, commercial transactions and litigation matters. She also oversees all legal aspects of the A's real estate acquisition, entitlement and development efforts. The people operations and technology departments report to her as well.

Prior to joining the Club, Ellis was the general counsel of Aspire Public Schools, a nonprofit charter management organization that serves over fifteen thousand students throughout California. She has additional experience as a director and senior corporate counsel in the intellectual property, marketing, and advertising group at Gap, Inc. and as an associate in the litigation practice of Howard Rice Nemerovski Canady Falk and Rabkin (now Arnold & Porter).

Ellis is an Adjunct Professor at UC College of the Law, San Francisco and UC Berkeley Law, where she teaches sports law. She sits on the board of directors of Bay Area Legal Aid, which provides legal services to low-income residents in seven Bay Area counties; the board of directors of KIPP Northern California Public Schools, which serves over six thousand students in seven Northern California cities, including Oakland; and the board of directors of Seven Stories Institute, which runs a nonprofit bookstore collective in the Washington Heights neighborhood of New York City. She is a member of the Alameda County Bar Association and Golden Gate Chapter of Lambda Alpha International. She received her BA in Architecture, Preservation, and Planning from Columbia University and her JD from Stanford Law School. A lifelong A's fan, Ellis is from Richmond, Calif., and attended Bishop O'Dowd High School in Oakland.

STEVE FANELLI

Senior Vice President, Sales and Business Operations

Steve Fanelli is entering his seventh consecutive season with the A's, overseeing revenues, business analytics, and the overall fan experience through concessions and merchandise operations. Steve also oversees business operations for Hohokam stadium for Spring Training in Mesa, Ariz., and is a key member of the new Ballpark team, helping define and shape the future vision of the A's new Ballpark in Las Vegas.

An accomplished industry executive with a proven track record, Fanelli will enter his 29th season working in Major League Baseball. Between his two stints with the A's, he spent two seasons with the San Francisco Giants as Vice President of Ticket Strategy and Operations (2018-19).

In his three-decade career in baseball, he has consistently been at the forefront of many industry-changing initiatives, and has recently lead internal efforts to create the first Jersey Patch partnership in club history, redefine the food and beverage experience in the new Ballpark in Las Vegas with a strategic partnership with Aramark, as well as assist with the club's transition to Sacramento.

Working closely with Major League Baseball, Fanelli currently maintains a strong focus on growing the game on both the local and league level, through product development, staffing optimization, digital adoption and business strategy.

Fanelli is a founding member of the Bay Area Professional Ticketing Association (BAPTA) and a current International Ticketing Association (INTIX) member. A graduate of the University of Kansas with a Bachelor of Arts in Communications Studies, Fanelli serves on the KU Sport Management Board of Directors and is also currently serving as a KU Sport Management Mentor.

SHANNON JORDAN

Senior Vice President, Community and Events

Shannon Jordan joins the Athletics as senior vice president of community and events, where she leads community relations, philanthropy initiatives, and signature events. Born and raised in Chicago, Shannon brings decades of experience across professional sports and nonprofit leadership, with a strong focus on people, purpose, and creating meaningful impact in the communities the organization serves.

Prior to joining the A's, Shannon spent six seasons with the Las Vegas Raiders in a senior leadership role overseeing alumni relations and leading league-recognized health, wellness, and engagement programs. She previously led the corporate partnerships client service department for the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls and served as Executive Director of Mike Ditka's nonprofit organizations, the Gridiron Greats Assistance Fund and the After the Impact Fund.

Outside of work, Shannon has been married to her husband Bryan for 27 years, and they live in Henderson with their 14-year-old pup, Cami.

DAVID RINETTI

Senior Vice President, Stadium Operations

David Rinetti enters his 46th season with the A's organization and his first as the senior vice president, stadium operations.

In his current position, Rinetti coordinates event management with the Sacramento River Cats staff for home games played at Sutter Health Park in West Sacramento, Calif. He also assists with any A's-related construction projects at Sutter Health Park, and works with the broadcast crews for any operational issues associated with A's games. Additionally, he serves as the team's liaison with local law enforcement agencies and Major League Baseball's security department. Rinetti is also instrumental in the development of the new A's ballpark in Las Vegas, Nev.

The 61-year-old Rinetti began his career with the A's in 1981, serving as a stadium operations assistant, where he organized in-stadium promotions and giveaways. From 1987–93, he managed gameday operations and maintenance of the A's luxury suites. In 1994, he was promoted to director of stadium operations and was elevated to vice president in March of 2000.

Rinetti worked with Major League Baseball's security department at the 1995, 1998, 2007, 2010, 2012 and 2015 World Series, in addition to the 1998, 2002, 2007 and 2011 MLB All-Star games and the 2023 MLB London Games. ATHLETICS VIRTUAL PRESS BOX

The Athletics Virtual Press Box includes game notes, press releases, rosters, headshots, audio, spring training video and more. The site also features information from the visiting team for all home games.

The A's virtual press box also includes the A's Media Guide, which is updated with bios for any significant acquisitions following the start of Spring Training. The digital guide features bookmarks, which will take you to any page in the guide, as well as links to updated statistics.

You can visit the A's Virtual Press Box at http://pressbox.athletics.com or by scanning the QR code on the right.

THE A'S ELEPHANT

After helping form the American League in 1901, New York Giants manager John McGraw dismissed the A's with contempt by calling them "The White Elephants," implying Connie Mack should not be allowed to spend money without supervision. Mack defiantly adopted the White Elephant as the team insignia and in 1902, the Athletics won their first American League pennant.

The White Elephant remained the team's mascot and later that decade, made its first appearance on the A's team sweaters. In 1918, the Elephant saw its first game action when Mack had the pachyderm symbol (in blue with a white "A" inside) placed on the left sleeve of every player.

By 1920, Mack had fully adopted the Elephant as the team's symbol. The traditional "A" on front of the team's jersey was replaced by a blue elephant logo. After a few poor seasons, Mack decided change was in order. So, in 1924, the blue elephant was replaced by the traditional white elephant on the team's jersey and the A's played better ball for the next few years.

In 1928, Mack decided the elephant had worn out its brief welcome on the A's jersey fronts and replaced the logo with the familiar "A" on the uniform. The A's went on to win two World Championships and an AL crown in the next three years, although the resurgence was probably due more to the additions of Foxx, Simmons, Grove and Cochrane than the Elephant's absence.

That was the last year for the Elephant on the A's uniform until 1955, when the A's, now in Kansas City, added the patch to their uniform sleeves. However, when Charlie Finley purchased the team in the early 1960's, the Elephant was once again sent packing and replaced by, of all animals, a mule.

Prior to the 1988 season, the A's brought back a new, more aggressive A's Elephant. In 1995, the traditional A's Elephant was reincorporated into many of the team's promotional items and publications and was a prominent feature on the A's uniform.

2026 ATHLETICS

MARK KOTSAY 7

MANAGER

Mark Steven Kotsay

Named A's manager, December 21, 2021

Birthdate: December 2, 1975

Birthplace/Resides: Whittier, California / Rancho Sante Fe, California

Contract Status: Signed through 2028 with a club option for 2029

Mark Kotsay begins his fifth season as manager of the Athletics in 2026 after being named the 31st manager in Athletics history following the 2021 season. He is just the sixth person to manage the A's over the last 40 years, joining Tony La Russa (1986-95), Art Howe (1996-2002), Ken Macha (2003-06), Bob Geren (2007-11) and Bob Melvin (2011-21). Kotsay originally signed a three-year contract through the 2024 season with a club option for 2025 on Dec. 21, 2021. The A's exercised the option for 2025 on Nov. 7, 2023 and announced a three-year extension through 2028 with a club option for 2029 on Feb. 17, 2025.

Kotsay has compiled a 255-393 record in four seasons at the helm of the A's, during which the A's have employed 168 different players, which is second most in the majors. The club has used the first, second and third most players in Athletics history during his tenure (64 in 2022, 62 in 2023, 58 in 2025) and the first, second and third most rookies since the franchise left Kansas City following the 1967 season (34 in 2022, 25 in 2025, 22 in 2023). The A's set a franchise record with 41 pitchers in 2023, including a Major League record tying 24 starting pitchers. In 2024, Kotsay was named to the American League coaching staff for the All-Star Game and received one second place vote in BBWAA AL Manager of the Year balloting.

Prior to being named Manager, Kotsay spent six seasons on the A's coaching staff. He joined the club as bench coach in 2016 and filled that role until taking a leave of absence June 19, 2017. Kotsay served as the A's quality control coach from 2018-20 and moved into the third base coaching box for the 2021 season. He made his professional coaching debut as the San Diego Padres hitting coach in 2015. Kotsay joins Jeff Newman, who was interim manager in 1986 between Jackie Moore and Tony La Russa, as the only managers in Oakland history with no previous managerial experience.

Kotsay played 17 seasons in the Major Leagues from 1997-2013, including a four-year stint with Oakland from 2004-07. He was acquired from San Diego following the 2003 season for Ramón Hernández and Terrence Long and went on to hit .282 in 472 games with the A's. Kotsay batted a career-high .313 in 2004 and tallied a career-high 82 RBI in 2005 while belting 15 home runs in each season. He was a member of the A's American League West champions in 2006 and sparked Oakland to its first ALCS appearance in 14 years with an inside-the-park home run in Game 2 of the ALDS at Minnesota. Kotsay joins La Russa and Newman as the only people to both play for and manage the Oakland A's. He is one of nine to play for and manage the Athletics (Hank Bauer, Jimmy Dykes, Eddie Joost, La Russa, Billy Martin, Newman, Haywood Sullivan, Dick Williams).

A former outfielder, Kotsay batted .276 with 127 home runs and 720 RBI in 1,914 games during his career, which also included stops in Florida (1997-2000), San Diego (2001-03, 12-13), Atlanta (2008), Boston (2008-09), Chicago-AL (2009-10) and Milwaukee (2011). He made his ML debut with Florida in his second professional season in 1997 and appeared in a career-high 154 games in his rookie season of 1998. After batting .298 in 2000, he was traded to San Diego five days prior to Opening Day in 2001. He hit .292 with a career-high 17 home runs in 2002. Following his stay with Oakland, Kotsay returned to the LCS in 2008 with Boston and 2011 with Milwaukee. He concluded his playing career with San Diego in 2012 and 2013.

Kotsay retired following the 2013 season and spent 2014 in the Padres front office as a special assistant to the general manager and baseball operations. In that role, he was involved in all aspects of the club's baseball operations.

A graduate of Sante Fe (Calif.) High School, Kotsay attended Cal State Fullerton, where he led the Titans to the College World Series Championship in 1995. He was the winner of the Golden Spikes Award, was named Collegiate Player of the Year that year and hit .404 in his collegiate career. Kotsay was the Marlins first-round pick and the ninth selection overall in the 1996 draft and also played for the United States in the 1996 Olympics.

Kotsay is married, Jamie, and has three children, Grace, Sienna and Trey. He resides in Rancho Santa Fe, Calif., during the offseason.

MIKE ALDRETE 18

HITTING COACH
Michael Peter Aldrete
Named bench coach, October 27, 2014; named first base coach, November 12, 2015; named assistant hitting coach, December 4, 2017; named first base coach, October 31, 2019; named quality control coach, January 14, 2022; named first base coach, November 28, 2022; named hitting coach, November 13, 2023
Birthdate: January 29, 1961
Birthplace/Resides: Carmel, California / Salinas, California

Mike Aldrete returns for his 12th season on the A's coaching staff, his third as hitting coach. He originally joined the A's as bench coach in 2015; spent five seasons as the A's first base coach from 2016-17, 20-21 and 23; two years as assistant hitting coach in 2018-19 and one season as quality control coach in 2022. Aldrete also held the title of outfield coach from 2016-17. The 2026 season will mark his 22nd on a Major League coaching staff.

He began his coaching career in 2001 as hitting coach for Short-Season Yakima in the Diamondbacks minor league system. He was promoted to manager of Yakima the following season and then managed Arizona's High-A club in Lancaster in 2003. His first coaching opportunity in the majors came in 2004 when he was named first base coach on Bob Melvin's staff in Seattle. He moved to Arizona the following year when Melvin was named manager of the Diamondbacks, serving as hitting coach there for two seasons.

Tony La Russa, whom Aldrete had played for in Oakland, hired him as assistant hitting coach with St. Louis in 2008. After four seasons in that position, including with the 2011 Cardinals team that was crowned World Series champions, he was promoted to bench coach in 2012, when Mike Matheny replaced the retiring La Russa as manager. During his three-year stint as bench coach, the Cardinals advanced to the World Series in 2013 and to the National League Championship Series in both 2012 and 2014.

Born in Carmel, Calif., and a graduate of Monterey High School and Stanford University, the former first baseman/outfielder played for seven different teams during his 10-year Major League career, including both the San Francisco Giants (1986-88) and the Oakland A's (1993-95). A .263 lifetime hitter in 930 games, Aldrete also played for Montreal (1989-90), San Diego (1991), Cleveland (1991), the California Angels (1995-96) and the New York Yankees (1996).

Aldrete's finest season as a player was with the Giants in 1987, when he batted a career-high .325 on a team that lost to St. Louis in the National League Championship Series. He split his final season between California and New York in 1996, ending his career as a member of the World Series Champion Yankees.

A third-team All-American his senior season at Stanford, Aldrete was chosen by San Francisco in the seventh round of the June Draft in 1983. He enjoyed a pair of trips to the College World Series with the Cardinal and was a member of the U.S. Collegiate All-Star team that toured Japan in 1982. Aldrete graduated from Monterey (Calif.) High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and football.

Aldrete makes his offseason home in Salinas, Calif., with his wife, Gina, and their three children; Michael, Blake and Nicolette. Michael (RHP) was selected by the Cardinals in the 2012 First Year Player Draft out of San Jose State (39th round).

Darren Bush begins his 22nd season in the A's organization in 2026, which includes two seasons as a minor league hitting coach, six seasons as a minor league manager and 14 seasons on the Major League coaching staff. Only Earle Mack, with 26 seasons, has spent more years on the A's coaching staff.

Bush joined the A's as bullpen coach in 2013 and spent two seasons in that role before serving seven seasons as hitting coach from 2015-21. In 2019, the A's set franchise records for home runs (257) and extra base hits (572). Bush was third base/run prevention coach in 2022 and begins his fourth season as bench coach for Mark Kotsay in 2026. He was also named director of hitting on Nov. 13, 2023.

Bush compiled a 462-386 (.545) record in six seasons as a manager with Single-A Stockton (2007-08), Double-A Midland (2009-10) and Triple-A Sacramento (2011-12). He guided the River Cats to back-to-back division titles with a mark of 88-56 in 2011 and 86-58 in 2012. Bush also led the RockHounds to playoff appearances in 2009 and 2010, including a Texas League Championship in 2009. He skippered Single-A Stockton to the California League Championship in his second year as a manager in 2008. Bush joined the Athletics in 2005 as hitting coach at Stockton and spent two seasons in that capacity before taking over as manager for the Ports in 2007.

Prior to joining the A's organization, Bush coached in independent leagues. He was the hitting coach and Director of Player Personnel with Yuba-Sutter of the Western League in 2002 and then spent two seasons as a manager in the Northeast League with Berkshire (41-51 in 2003) and Quebec (58-34 in 2004).

A former outfielder, Bush began his playing career with three seasons in the independent Frontier League. He played for Zanesville in 1996 and Springfield in 1997-98, hitting .302 with 26 home runs and 133 RBI in 224 games. Bush signed with the San Diego Padres organization Dec. 24, 1998, and hit .259 with 16 home runs and 114 RBI in 231 games in two seasons at Single-A Rancho Cucamonga (1999-2000) and one year at Single-A Clearwater (2001) in the Phillies farm system. He also played one game for Triple-A Las Vegas in 2000 and went 2-for-4. He concluded his playing career by hitting .417 in seven games for Yuba-Sutter of the Western League in 2002. Bush had a .284 average in 456 games overall.

Bush attended Dunedin High School and Valdosta State University. He resides in Englewood, Fla., during the offseason. Bush is married, Rebecca, and has two children, Wyatt and Maggie.

RYAN CHRISTENSON 37

FIRST BASE COACH

Ryan Alan Christenson

Named A's first base coach, November 5, 2025

Birthdate: March 28, 1974

Birthplace/Resides: Redlands, California / Tyrone, Georgia

Ryan Christenson returns to A's organization in 2026 as first base coach after spending four seasons as bench coach for Bob Melvin in San Diego (2022-23) and San Francisco (2024-25). This will be his ninth season on a Major League coaching staff, which began with four seasons as Melvin's bench coach with the A's from 2018-21. This is his 17th season in the A's organization, which includes five years as a minor league manager and seven seasons as a player.

Prior to his promotion in Oakland in 2018, Christenson spent five seasons managing in the A's farm system. After Single-A stints at Beloit in 2013 and Stockton in 2014, he guided Double-A Midland to back-to-back Texas League Championships in 2015 and 2016. Christenson served as manager at Triple-A Nashville in 2017 and also manned the third base coaching box for team USA in the 2017 All-Star Futures Game. His teams have a 391-307 (.560) record in five seasons.

Christenson played parts of six seasons in the majors with Oakland (1998-2001), Arizona (2001), Milwaukee (2002) and Texas (2003) and was a .222 hitter with 16 home runs and 102 RBI in 452 games. His best season came in his rookie campaign in 1998 when he hit .257 with five home runs and 40 RBI, all career-highs. Christenson batted .237 in 351 games in his four seasons with the A's and was a member of the 2000 American League West champions. His playing career concluded at Triple-A Albuquerque in the Marlins farm system in 2004.

Christenson was selected by the A's in the 10th round of the 1995 June draft out of Pepperdine University. He was West Coast Conference Player of the Year in his final season with the Waves after leading the league with a .376 batting average. Christenson is a 1992 graduate of Apple Valley High School.

Christenson resides in Scottsdale, Ariz., with his wife, Micki, and children, Cassidy and Cameron.

CHRIS CRON 41

HITTING COACH

Christopher John Cron

Named assistant hitting coach, January 14, 2022; named hitting coach, November 13, 2023

Birthdate: March 31, 1964

Birthplace/Resides: Albuquerque, New Mexico / Ahwatukee, Arizona

Chris Cron returns for his fifth season on the A's coaching staff. After serving as the A's assistant hitting coach in 2022 and '23, Cron returns for his third consecutive season as hitting coach in 2025. His five seasons with the A's mark his first on a Major League coaching staff after 27 seasons in the minors as a manager, hitting coordinator and field coordinator in the Chicago White Sox, Colorado Rockies, Detroit Tigers and Arizona Diamondbacks organizations.

Cron comes to the A's from Arizona where he served as minor league field coordinator in 2021. He joined the Diamondbacks in 2014 as minor league hitting coordinator and spent five seasons in that role before being named manager of Triple-A Reno in 2019. He guided the Aces to a 66-74 record that year and was slated to return as manager in 2020 before the minor league season was cancelled due to the pandemic.

Cron is a two-time Manager of the Year, earning the honors with Single-A Winston-Salem in the Carolina League in 1998 and Rookie Great Falls in the Pioneer League in 2010. He guided his clubs to eight playoff appearances (1997-98, 2005, 07-10, 13), including a Pioneer League Championship in 2007.

Cron began his minor league managerial career in 1995 at Rookie Bristol in the Chicago White Sox organization and also had stops at Single-A Hickory (1996-97) and Winston-Salem (1998) and Double-A Birmingham (1999). He spent the three seasons as manager at Triple-A Colorado Springs from 2000-02 in the Rockies organization before returning to the White Sox in 2003. Cron spent one year each at Rookie Great Falls (2004), Single-A Kannapolis (2005), Winston-Salem (2006) and Birmingham before concluding his White Sox career with four years at Great Falls from 2007-10. He then managed for three seasons at Double-A Erie in the Detroit system from 2011-13 before moving on to the Diamondbacks.

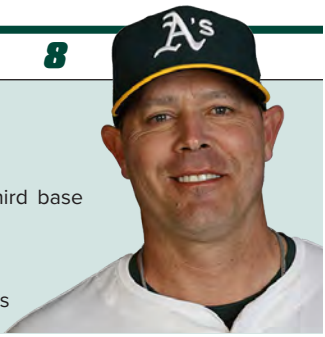

Cron played professionally for 12 seasons, including 12 games in the majors with California (1991) and Chicago-AL (1992). He went 2-for-15 (.133) in six games with the Angels in his debut and was 0-for-10 in six games with the White Sox in 1992. Cron was a .268 hitter with 172 home runs and 785 RBI in 1,250 games as a minor leaguer in the Atlanta, California, Chicago (AL) and Cleveland organizations. He was originally selected by the Braves in the second round of the 1984 draft out of Santa Ana (Calif.) College and is a graduate of El Dorado (Calif.) High School.

Cron resides in Phoenix, Ariz., and has three children: C.J., Kevin and Carly. C.J. was the Angels first round pick in 2011 and made his Major League debut in 2014. Kevin was the Diamondbacks 14th round selection in 2014 and made his ML debut in 2019. Carly graduated from Northern Arizona University in 2020 and completed her Masters degree from Arizona State in 2021.

THIRD BASE COACH

Robert Edward Crosby

Named first base coach, November 13, 2023; named third base coach, November 5, 2025

Birthdate: January 12, 1980

Birthplace/Resides: Lakewood, California / Ft. Worth, Texas

Former A's shortstop and Rookie of the Year Bobby Crosby returns to the A's coaching staff for the third consecutive season, his first as third base coach. He joined the A's in 2024 and spent his first two seasons as first base coach. This is his first Major League coaching assignment and his 17th season in the A's organization, which includes nine years as a player and five years as a minor league coach and manager.

Crosby began his coaching career in 2019 as a coach at Double-A Midland and was slated to manage Single-A Stockton in 2020 before the minor league season was cancelled due to the pandemic. He was named manager for Midland in 2021 and spent three seasons guiding the RockHounds. The A's Double-A affiliate finished 70-68 in 2023 and Crosby is 195-199 in three seasons as manager.

Crosby had an eight-year playing career, including seven seasons with Oakland from 2003-09 and the 2010 campaign with Pittsburgh and Arizona. He was named American League

Rookie of the Year in 2004 after batting .239 with 22 home runs and 64 RBI in 151 games. Crosby hit 55 of his 61 career home runs with the A's as a shortstop and has the fifth most home runs by a shortstop in Athletics history.

Crosby signed with Pittsburgh as a free agent following the 2009 season and played in 61 games with the Pirates and nine with the Diamondbacks before he was released on Aug. 24, 2010. He attempted a comeback three years later after signing a minor league deal with Milwaukee prior to the start of 2013 Spring Training but played in just seven games during the spring before his release on March 18. Crosby finished his big league career with a .236 average, 62 home runs and 276 RBI in 747 games.

Crosby was the A's first round selection and 25th pick overall in the 2001 draft out of Long Beach State University. He was the Big West Conference Player of the Year in 2001 and a third team Collegiate Baseball All-America selection after batting a team leading .353 with nine home runs and 39 RBI. Crosby had a .324 career batting average in three years with the Dirt Bags. The son of former A's scout and former Major Leaguer Ed Crosby, Bobby is a graduate of La Quinta HS in Westminster, Calif.

SCOTT EMERSON 14

PITCHING COACH

Scott Matthew Emerson

Named bullpen coach, October 30, 2014; named pitching coach, June 15, 2017

Birthdate: December 22, 1971

Birthplace/Resides: Baltimore, Maryland / Asheboro, North Carolina

Scott Emerson returns for his 12th season on the A's Major League coaching staff and his 23rd in the A's organization. He joined the coaching staff for the 2015 season as bullpen coach and took over the reins as pitching coach on June 15, 2017.

Emerson spent two seasons as minor league roving pitching instructor from 2013-14 after 10 years as a pitching coach at various levels. He was hired by the A's organization in 2003 as pitching coach at Single-A Modesto and served two seasons there before the A's moved their affiliate to Stockton. After two seasons with the Ports, Emerson had a four-year stint at Double-A Midland from 2007-10. He was promoted to Triple-A Sacramento in 2011 and spent two seasons with the River Cats.

Emerson's coaching career began in the Pittsburgh Pirates organization in 2000 when he was named the pitching coach for the Pirates Gulf Coast Rookie League club at Bradenton. He spent two years in the GCL and one at Single-A Williamsport in 2002 before joining the A's organization.

Emerson pitched professionally for six seasons in the Baltimore (1992-95), Boston (1995-96) and Arizona (1997) organizations. He was a 10-game winner at Single-A Albany in 1993 and was traded to the Red Sox organization early during the 1995 season. The left-hander signed with Arizona after being released by Boston in the spring of 1997. He pitched in three games for Single-A High Desert before concluding his professional career with Rio Grande Valley of the independent Texas-Louisiana League in 1997. Emerson was 27-29 with a 4.16 ERA in 135 games, 79 starts in his career.

Emerson was drafted by San Diego in the 21st round of the 1990 June draft out of Shadow Mountain (Phoenix, Ariz.) HS but did not sign. He attended Scottsdale Community College and signed with the Baltimore organization after the Orioles selected him in the 40th round of the 1991 June draft.

Emerson and his wife, Jill, make their offseason home in Asheboro, N.C.

RAMÓN HERNÁNDEZ 55

COACH/INTERPRETER

Ramón Jose Hernández

Named Major League Staff Assistant/Interpreter, December 20, 2022

Birthdate: May 20, 1976

Birthplace/Resides: Caracas, Venezuela / Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Former Athletics catcher Ramón Hernández returns for his fourth season on the A's Major League coaching staff. He was named Major League staff assistant/interpreter on Dec. 20, 2022 and returns for his third season as Major League coach and interpreter in 2026.

Hernández began his coaching career in his native Venezuela as bench coach for the Tiburones de La Guaira in 2015-16. He returned to La Guaira the following season and was named bench coach for the Navegantes del Magallanes in 2017-18. Hernández briefly managed the Tigres de Aragua in 2018. He next served as a bench coach for the Sultanes de Monterrey of the Mexican League in 2022 before returning to Magallanes as bench coach in 2022-23.

Hernández had a 15-year career in the majors with Oakland (1999-2003), San Diego (2004-05), Baltimore (2006-08), Cincinnati (2009-11), Colorado (2012) and Los Angeles-NL (2013). He was originally signed by the A's as a non-drafted free agent out of Venezuela in 1994 and hit .253 with 60 home runs and 263 RBI in 595 games in five seasons with Oakland. Hernández ranks third on the Oakland career list for games caught (591) and had one of the most memorable moments in Oakland postseason history when his walk-off bunt drove in the winning run in the bottom of the 12th inning of the A's 5-4 win over Boston in Game 1 of the 2003 ALDS.

Hernández was traded to San Diego with Terrence Long following the 2003 season for current A's manager Mark Kotsay and hit .290 for the Padres in 2005. He signed with Baltimore as a free agent following the 2005 season and had career highs in home runs (23) and RBI (91) in his first season with the Orioles in 2006. Hernández batted a career-high .297 in 97 games with the Reds and played in 17 games for the Dodgers in his final season in 2013. His playing days concluded with two seasons in the Venezuela winter league in 2013-14 and 2014-15.

Hernández was an All-Star with Oakland in 2003 and made postseason appearances with the A's (2000-03), Padres (2005) and Reds (2010). He was named to the Caribbean Baseball Hall of Fame in 2023.

Hernández and his wife, Bella, reside in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., during the off season.

MARCUS JENSEN 72

QUALITY CONTROL COACH

Marcus Christian Jensen

Named assistant hitting/catching coach, October 30, 2014; named bullpen coach, December 4, 2017; named quality control coach, November 28, 2022

Birthdate: December 14, 1972

Birthplace/Resides: Oakland, California / Scottsdale, Arizona

Marcus Jensen returns for his 12th season on the A's Major League coaching staff and his 20th in the A's organization. The 2026 season marks his fourth as quality control coach after spending the previous five years as bullpen coach. Jensen served as as the A's assistant hitting/catching coach from 2015-17.

Jensen joined the A's organization in 2007 as hitting coach for the A's affiliate in the Arizona Rookie League and served two years in that capacity. He took over the managerial duties for that club in 2009 and guided the A's to a 141-136 (.509) record and one playoff appearance in five seasons. In 2013, he also served as the A's minor league roving catching instructor and then spent the 2014 season as the A's minor league roving hitting instructor.

A former catcher, Jensen was drafted by San Francisco out of Skyline High School in Oakland following the first round of the 1990 June draft as a compensation pick for the loss of free agent Craig Lefferts. He batted .184 with six home runs and 29 RBI in 145 games in seven seasons with seven different teams.

Jensen made his Major League debut with San Francisco in 1996 and appeared in 39 games over two seasons with the Giants before he was dealt to Detroit in July 1997. After spending parts of the 1998 and 1999 seasons with Milwaukee and St. Louis, respectively, Jensen saw his most big league action with Minnesota in 2000 when he batted .209 with three home runs and 14 RBI in 52 games. He split the 2001 season between Boston and Texas and returned to Milwaukee in 2002, appearing in 40 games in his final big league campaign. Jensen spent the 2003 season at Triple-A Columbus in the New York (AL) farm system and played for Cancún in the Mexican League in 2004. He spent his final two seasons as a professional with Mesa (2005) and Reno (2006) of the independent Golden Baseball League. Jensen was also a member of the 2000 U.S. Olympic team that defeated Cuba for the gold medal.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A designated hitter must be selected prior to the game and must be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief. The DH must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing Club changes pitchers. The DH is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the DH. The DH may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player. The DH role is terminated if a pitcher switches from the mound to a postion on defense, a pinch hitter enters the game to pitch, the pitcher bats or runs for the DH, the DH assumes a postion on defense or a player on defense enters the game to pitch. A player listed on the lineup card as both a starting pitcher and DH can continue to bat if he is replaced as the pitcher or continue to pitch if he is replaced as the DH.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

2017 — Signed by the San Diego Padres organization as a non-drafted free agent, July 4. 2020 — Traded to Oakland Athletics as the player to be named later in the June 30, 2020 trade in which the A's sent infielder Jorge Mateo to the Padres for a PTBNL, November 5.

BASEBALL IN SACRAMENTO

The history of professional baseball in Sacramento dates back to 1883 when the city had a club in the California State League. Sacramento hosted Cal League and Pacific Coast League teams from the late 19th century to pre-World War I, before finally settling in for a 43-year run in the PCL from 1918-60. Baseball returned to the state capital in 1974 for a three-year stay in the PCL and the city also hosted a Western League team in 1999 before the River Cats joined the PCL in 2000 as the Triple-A affiliate of the A's. The club switched affiliation to the Giants in 2015.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Has pitched eight seasons in the majors with Texas (2018-19), Boston (2020), Tampa Bay (2021-24) and the A's (2025) and is 34-23 with a 3.64 ERA in 177 games, including 67 starts...has 497 strikeouts in 484.2 innings, an average of 9.23 per nine innings...pitched almost exclusively in relief over his first four seasons (100 games in relief, two starts) but has been used mostly as a starter over the last four years (65 starts, 10 relief appearances)...is 23-17 with a 3.25 ERA in his 67 career starts, 11-6 with a 4.52 ERA in 110 relief appearances...was limited to just three starts in 2023 and seven in 2024 after undergoing "Tommy John" surgery on April 24, 2023...was on the Rays playoff roster for the 2022 American League Wild Card series but did not pitch.

2025 HIGHLIGHTS

- Was 11-11 with a 4.11 ERA and 171.0 innings pitched in 32 games, including 30 starts, in his first season with the A's after April 2023 "Tommy John" surgery limited him to a 4-2 record, a 2.39 ERA, 10 starts and 49.0 innings pitched over the previous two seasons with the Rays.
- His wins, starts and innings pitched were career highs.
- Did not have a wild pitch and his 171.0 innings pitched tied for second most in the majors among pitchers with no wild pitches...they were fifth most by an A's pitcher in the expansion era...has a streak of 58 games (56 starts) and 301.1 innings since his last wild pitch on June 18, 2022.
- Also had career highs in losses, hits (153), runs (90), earned runs (78), walks (54), home runs (28), hit batters (3) and balks (3).
- Tied for second in the majors in most balks and tied for 10th in most home runs allowed.
- Struck out 138 batters, which was the second highest total of his career...however, averaged 7.26 strikeouts per nine innings, which was the lowest mark of his career.
- Led the A's in wins, starts, innings pitched, strikeouts, home runs and walks, and tied for the lead in losses...is just the second 10-game winner for the A's over the last four years.
- Went 3-3 with a 6.04 ERA and .813 opponents OPS over his first six starts, 7-4 with a 3.30 ERA and .642 OPS over his next 18 games from May 1 to Aug. 6, and 1-4 with a 4.85 ERA and .828 OPS over his final eight starts.
- Allowed 48 of his 90 runs (53.3%) over the first two innings of a game...had a 6.10 ERA, .836 opponents OPS and averaged 4.21 walks per nine innings over innings 1-2...then compiled a 2.97 ERA, .643 OPS and 2.06 walks per nine innings from the third inning on...as a starter, he had a .269 opponents batting average the first time through the order, .234 the second time and .188 after that...his career splits are .249, .224 and .200.
- His opponents batting average broke down to .235 (121-for-514) with a .732 opponents OPS against right-handed hitters and .241 (32-for-133) with a .660 OPS against left-handers...surrendered 25 of his 28 home runs to righties, which was third most in the majors...29 of his 33 home runs allowed over the last two years have been hit by righties.
- Yielded 21 of his 28 home runs with the bases empty...opponents were 1-for-10 (.100) with a double, a walk and seven strikeouts with the bases loaded.
- Was 6-5 with a 4.81 ERA in 15 home games, 5-6 with a 3.45 ERA in 17 road games...had the sixth highest home ERA in the majors...yielded 17 of his 28 home runs at Sutter Health Park...is now 20-8 (.714) in his home ballparks in his career and 14-15 (.483) on the road.
- Went 9-6 with a 3.58 ERA in 22 night games, 2-5 with a 5.36 ERA in 10 day games.

- Had an 8-6 record and a 3.93 ERA before the All-Star Break, a 3-6 mark and a 4.43 ERA after the break...now has a 21-10 (.677) record in his career before the break, 13-11 (.542) after the break.
- Went 4-1 with a 2.92 ERA in seven starts on six days rest or more, 7-10 with a 4.43 ERA in his other 25 appearances.
- Was 5-2 with a 2.91 ERA and .594 opponents OPS in 10 games against American League West teams, 6-9 with a 4.68 ERA and .772 OPS in 22 games against everyone else...is now 15-6 with a 3.44 ERA in his career against AL West clubs.
- Had a .203 opponents batting average against the opponents one, two and three hitters in the batting order...that included a mark of .165 against the leadoff hitter, which was second lowest in the majors...has a .185 career average against the opponents number one hitter.
- Began the season with 12 starts, pitched in relief of an opener in consecutive outings on June 4 against Minnesota and June 9 at Los Angeles (AL), and then started in each of his final 18 appearances.
- Logged 6.2 innings and 6.0 innings in each of his two relief appearances...tossed six innings or fewer 26 of his 30 starts...the A's were 15-15 (.500) in his starting assignment...the bullpen blew the save in three of his starts.
- DAY-BY-DAY: Combined with Sterner, McFarland and Spence on a five-hit shutout in his A's debut, a 7-0 win at Seattle in the second game of the season on March 28...struck out a season-high nine batters in 6.0 innings and allowed three of the hits...the strikeouts tied for fifth most by a pitcher in his A's debut and were the most since Aaron Harang had 10 on May 25, 2002...then tossed 82 pitches in 3.0 innings in his second start on April 2 against Chicago (NL) and was the losing pitcher in the A's 10-2 loss...won back-to-back starts on April 8 against San Diego and April 15 at Chicago (AL), his first of four two-game winning streaks...yielded six runs in a 14-1 loss to Milwaukee on April 20, which were a career high until he surrendered seven runs in his next start on April 26, a 10-3 loss to Chicago (AL)...finished 2-3 with a 7.66 ERA in five starts in April...tied for the second most runs allowed in the majors in April (25) and his ERA was sixth highest among pitchers with 20 or more innings pitched...then went 2-1 with a 3.58 ERA and .673 opponents OPS in six starts in May...combined with Spence, McFarland, Sterner and Miller on a three-hit shutout in his first start in May, a 3-0 A's win at Texas on May 1...logged just 68 pitches in 6.0 innings and allowed two of the hits...had his first no decision of the season in the A's 5-3 loss to Seattle on May 6...retired 20 consecutive batters on May 18 at San Francisco after allowing a lead-off home run...left with a 2-1 lead but the bullpen blew the save...it was the first of three starts in which the bullpen blew the save (May 24 vs. Philadelphia, July 1 at Tampa Bay)...logged 105 pitches in the A's 9-6, 11-inning loss to Philadelphia on May 24...the pitches were the most of his career as a starter...walked a career-high six batters in 2.0 innings in an 11-7 loss at Toronto on May 30...it matched his shortest career outing as a starter...pitched in relief of an opener in each of his next two appearances on June 4 against Minnesota and June 9 at Los Angeles (AL)...in the game against the Twins, he logged a career-high 106 pitches and tossed 6.2 innings, which was the longest relief appearance of his career...it was the second longest relief appearance by an Athletic over the last 29 years (7.0 by Hogan Harris on June 13, 2023)...in the game against the Angels, he committed the first error of his career, snapping a career-opening 158-game errorless streak (35 total chances)...tossed a career-high 7.1 innings in a 5-1 win over Cleveland on June 20...that began a five-start stretch where he went 3-1 with a 2.37 ERA...allowed 10 runs over that span, eight of which scored on home runs...yielded a career-high nine hits in 4.0 innings in an 8-2 loss at Cleveland on July 20...had a streak were he retired 34 of 36 batters faced from July 30 to Aug. 6...went 4-1 with a 3.71 ERA in six starts in July...tied for second in the majors in wins in July...it was the first four-win month of his career...allowed a .222 opponents batting average and walked just six batters in 34.0 innings (1.59 per nine innings)...then went 0-2 with a 5.04 ERA in five starts in August...had a career-high four-game losing streak from Aug. 11 to Sept. 9...compiled a 6.00 ERA and .889 opponents OPS during the streak, which spanned six starts...allowed an unearned run in 4.0 innings on Sept. 16 at Boston and then snapped his losing streak by allowing one run in 5.0 innings in a 5-1 win over Houston in his final start on Sept. 23.

A's RECENT COMPLETE GAMES

The A's enter the 2026 season with a streak of 236 consecutive games without a complete game dating back to July 4, 2024. That is the second longest streak in Athletics history to the record of 515 games from June 4, 2021 to July 2, 2024. The A's have just one complete game over their last 752 games, a five-hitter by Joey Estes on July 3, 2024. The last time an A's pitcher allowed a run in a complete game was on July 23, 2016 by Kendall Graveman against Tampa Bay in a 4-3 A's win (9.0 ip, 9 h, 3 r, 1 er, 4 so). The last A's pitcher to take the loss in a complete game was Graveman on June 13, 2015 at Los Angeles-AL, a 1-0 decision (8.0 ip, 8 h, 1 r, 1 er, 7 so). Jacob Wilson became the first rookie shortstop to be elected by the fans to start the All-Star Game.

HISTORY

From its beginnings in Philadelphia to its current version, the Athletics franchise has been one of the most storied in Major League history. The A's have won nine World Championships, 15 Pennants and 17 Division Titles in 124 years in the American League. Only the New York Yankees (27) and St. Louis Cardinals (11) have won more World Series and only the Yankees (41) have more American League Pennants.

The A's were one of the eight original AL franchises when the league was born in 1901. Connie Mack was named manager of the Philadelphia entry and would guide the A's for 50 years, winning five World Championships and 3,582 games. The Hall of Famer was also an owner of the club for all 54 years in Philadelphia.

Under Mack's leadership, the A's would win six of the first 14 AL Pennants, including World Series titles in 1910, 11 and 13. The first dynasty featured the "$100,000 infield" of Stuffy McInnis, Eddie Collins, Jack Barry and Frank "Home Run" Baker as well as Hall of Fame pitchers Chief Bender, Eddie Plank and Rube Waddell. Waddell led the AL in strikeouts each year from 1902-07 and Baker earned the "Home Run" nickname by topping the AL in round trippers from 1911-14, with 11, 10, 12 and nine.

The A's won 99 games in 1914 but dropped off to 43 wins in 1915 as the club sold off many of its star players, a pattern that would continue throughout the history of the franchise. The A's had seven straight last place finishes through 1921, but a second dynasty was on the horizon.

Mack again began to assemble Hall of Fame talent in the mid-20's, putting together one of the most feared batting orders in baseball history with catcher Mickey Cochrane, first baseman Jimmie Foxx and outfielder Al Simmons. Add in another Hall of Famer on the mound in Lefty Grove and the A's would win 100 games in three straight seasons, including back-to-back World Championships in 1929 and 30.

The A's won their ninth AL Pennant with a 107-win season in 1931 as Grove won AL Most Valuable Player honors. Foxx won back-to-back MVPs in 1932 and 1933, setting franchise records for home runs (58) and RBI (169) in 1932. However, economics again led Mack to sell or trade his best players. The club would post 13 consecutive losing seasons from 1934-46 and would finish no higher than fourth place in the final 21 years in Philadelphia.

Connie Mack managed his final season in 1950 at the age of 87 and the Mack family sold the club to Arnold Johnson, who moved the A's to Kansas City in 1955.

The A's finished in sixth place in their first season in Kansas City, but that would be their highest finish in the midwest, which featured 13 losing seasons. The club again began to develop talent, but most, including the likes of Roger Maris and 1952 AL MVP Bobby Shantz, would end up being traded to the Yankees. Following the death of Johnson in 1960, the A's were sold to Charlie Finley.

Bert Campaneris played all nine positions in one game for the Kansas City A's on Sept. 8, 1965.

Finley began assembling another talented group of A's players, signing Jim "Catfish" Hunter, Rollie Fingers, Bert Campaneris and Joe Rudi and drafting Reggie Jackson, Sal Bando and Vida Blue. While most of these players had limited time with the Kansas City A's, they would form the nucleus of the next A's dynasty.

The A's moved to Oakland in 1968 and won 82 games that year for their first winning season in 16 years. After back-to-back second place finishes in 1969 and 70, the A's won five straight American League West titles from 1971-75. Anchored by Hall of Famers Hunter, Fingers and Jackson, the A's won three straight World Championships from 1972-74.

Although the A's won 98 games in 1975, the third Athletics dynasty was already coming to an end with the departure of Hunter via free agency prior to the season. The rest of the players would be traded in the next two years and the A's lost 108 games in 1979. However, that year saw the debut of the next A's superstar, Rickey Henderson.

Billy Martin was hired to manage the A's in 1980 and Henderson flourished under Martin, stealing 100 bases that year and a Major League record 130 in 1982. Finley sold the A's to Haas Family following the 1980 season and BillyBall, featuring Henderson on the bases and starting pitchers going the distance, was born. The A's won the West in the strike-shortened 1981 season but would face a seven-year drought before returning to the postseason.

The turnaround began in 1986 with the hiring of Tony La Russa as manager and the signing of Dave Stewart as a free agent. A trade for future Hall of Famer Dennis Eckersley days before the start of the 1987 season led the to the emergence of the modern day closer, and three straight Rookies of the Year in Jose Canseco (1986), Mark McGwire (1987) and Walt Weiss (1988) gave the A's the ingredients for a run of four AL West Championships in five years from 1988-92.

Oakland made three straight World Series appearances from 1988-90, including a sweep of the cross-bay rival San Francisco Giants in 1989 that was buoyed by the return of Henderson to Oakland. Two years later on May 1, 1991, Henderson would break Lou Brock's Major League stolen base record with his 939th steal.

The A's had MVPs in 1988 (Canseco), 1990 (Henderson) and 1992 (Eckersley) and Cy Youngs in Bob Welch (1990) and Eckersley (1992), but this time it was age that ended the A's run.

Rickey Henderson broke Lou Brock's Major League record for career stolen bases with his 939th steal on May 1, 1991.

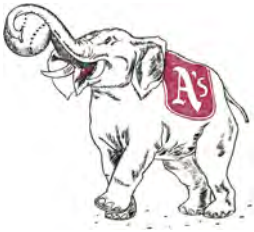

Billy Beane's Moneyball teams of the early 2000's – featuring the Big Three of Tim Hudson, Mark Mulder and 2002 Cy Young winner Barry Zito, and the offensive power of 2000 MVP Jason Giambi, 2002 MVP Miguel Tejada and Gold Glover Eric Chavez – made four straight postseason appearances from 2000-03 and another in 2006. The 2002 club set a then-AL record with a 20-game winning streak, capped off by a Scott Hatteberg pinch hit home run.

Giambi, Tejada and Zito departed via free agency and Hudson and Mulder were traded following the 2004 season, beginning a trend where top players were traded for prospects in the hopes of shortening the window between competitive teams.

The strategy proved to be a success under manager Bob Melvin. He was hired in 2011 and under his guidance, the A's made six postseason appearances over a nine-year span from 2012-20. The run began with two AL West titles and a Wild Card from 2012-14 and two Wild Cards and an AL West title from 2018-20. In between, the A's completely rebuilt, with only Brett Anderson and Jed Lowrie playing in each three-year stretch.

Melvin left following the 2021 season and the A's had back-to-back 100-loss seasons and last place finishes in 2022 and 2023, continuing another franchise-long trend. The 100-loss seasons bring the A's franchise total to a Major League record 18, but the A's have won 100 or more games 10 times, a total which is surpassed by only the Yankees (21) and Dodgers (11). And, while the A's are tied for the third most World Series titles, they also have the most last place finishes (36).

On Nov. 16, 2023, Major League Baseball unanimously approved the move of the A's franchise to Las Vegas. On April 4, 2024, the Athletics and the Sacramento Kings, majority owner of the Sacramento River Cats, announced that Sutter Health Park will host the A's for the 2025-27 seasons, making 2024 the 57th and final season in Oakland. The A's also played 54 seasons in Philadelphia and 13 in Kansas City.

Early Philadelphia A's logos featured the letter A before adopting the elephant as their primary logo in 1920. The image on the left served as the A's logo from 1939-53. The center logo made its debut in the final year in Philadelphia in 1954 and would be the primary logo for all 13 seasons in Kansas City (1955-67). After moving to Oakland in 1968, early logos featured "A's" on a baseball. In 1982, the baseball stitching was removed and the words Oakland Athletics were added. The logo on the right was the A's logo from 1993-2024.

ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

The Athletics Hall of Fame was founded in 2018 to honor the individuals who have shaped the identity and success of the Athletics franchise.

The inaugural class of seven featured the five Oakland A's National Baseball Hall of Famers: Catfish Hunter, Rollie Fingers, Reggie Jackson, Dennis Eckersley and Rickey Henderson, as well as four-time 20-game winner Dave Stewart and owner Charlie Finley.

The first induction ceremony took place on Sept. 5, 2018. With four additions in 2025, the Athletics Hall of Fame now features 43 members. The class of 2026 will be announced early in the 2026 season.

Frank "Home Run" Baker
Philadelphia A's 1908-14
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Frank "Home Run" Baker led the American League in home runs from 1911-13 and tied for the lead in 1914, but earned his nickname by hitting two home runs in the 1911 World Series against the Giants, the second of three World Champion A's teams that featured Baker as the A's third baseman. A member of the A's famed $100,000 infield, Baker led the league in triples in his rookie season of 1909 and topped the AL in RBI from 1912-13.

Sal Bando
Kansas City A's 1966-67;
Oakland A's 1968-76
Inducted Aug. 7, 2022

"Captain Sal" was the leader that held the A's together in the early 70's when Oakland won five straight American League West titles and three consecutive World Series. Bando finished in the top four in Most Valuable Player voting three times and was a four-time All-Star. His durability put him atop the AL leaderboard in games played four times and although he never led the league in any other major category, his 33.0 WAR from 1969-73 was the best in baseball.

Charles "Chief" Bender
Philadelphia A's 1903-14
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Charles "Chief" Bender was a Native American who pitched in five World Series for the A's. He had his finest season in 1910 when he authored a no-hitter while compiling a 23-5 record and a 1.58 ERA before helping the A's to their first World Championship. Bender, who was Connie Mack's choice "if there was one game I wanted to win above all others" won five of his seven World Series starts in 1910, 11 and 13 to lead the A's to their first three World Championships.

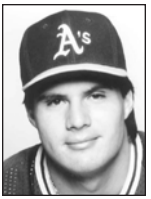

Vida Blue
Oakland A's 1969-77
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

Vida Blue made his Major League debut in 1969 eight days before his 20th birthday, tossed a no-hitter in 1970, and then burst onto the national scene in 1971 when he won both the American League Cy Young Award and Most Valuable Player Award after compiling a 24-8 record, a league-leading 1.82 ERA and 301 strikeouts. Blue started two All-Star Games for the AL in 1971 and 1975, and in between pitched for the A's three consecutive World Champions.

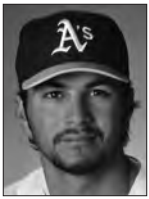

Bert Campaneris
Kansas City A's 1964-67;
Oakland A's 1968-76
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

When you trace the roots of the A's three straight World Championships from 1972 to 1974, it all began on April 25, 1961, when the Kansas City A's signed a 19-year-old Cuban named Dagoberto Campaneris. "Campy" played 13 seasons for the A's and was a six-time All-Star. He stole 649 bases in his career and led the American League in steals six times. Campaneris homered twice in his debut and famously played all nine positions in a nine-inning game on Sept. 8, 1965.

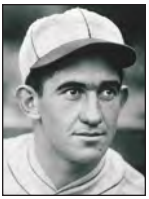

Jose Canseco
Oakland A's 1985-92, 97
Inducted August 17, 2024

Jose Canseco began his career by winning the American League Rookie of the Year award in 1986 and became one of the biggest stars in the game two years later when he earned AL MVP honors. He became the charter member of baseball's 40-40 club in 1988 and would go on to hit 462 home runs and steal 200 bases in his career. One-half of the Bash Brothers that helped the A's to three straight pennants and a World Championship in 1989, Canseco was a six-time All-Star.

Eric Chavez
Oakland A's 1998-2010
Inducted Aug. 7, 2022

Eric Chavez was a mainstay of the third era of great Oakland teams that won four American League West titles and made five playoff appearances from 2000-06. He won six straight Gold Gloves at third base from 2001-06, hit 20 or more home runs in seven straight seasons from 2000-06 and drove in 100 runs four times. Much like the A's teams of his era, Chavez excelled in the second half of the season and retired as the best player in Oakland history never named to an All-Star team.

Gordon "Mickey" Cochrane
Philadelphia A's 1925-33
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

One of baseball's greatest catchers, Mickey Cochrane was the backstop for the A's three consecutive American League Pennant winning teams from 1929-31. He was named AL MVP in 1928 and homered twice in the 1930 World Series as the A's won their second straight World Championship. Cochrane had a .321 batting average in nine seasons with the A's and also had a .419 on-base percentage nearly 70 years before it gained mainstream acceptance.

Eddie Collins
Philadelphia A's 1906-14; 27-30
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

The first Athletic to be elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame, Eddie Collins batted .337 and stole 373 bases in 13 seasons over two stints with the A's. He finished in the top six in Chalmer's Award Voting, a precursor to the MVP, in four straight seasons from 1911-14 and won the award in 1914. He hit .429 in the 1910 World Series to start the A's championship run of three Series titles in four years. The second baseman led the AL in steals in 1910 and runs from 1912-14.

Dennis Eckersley
Oakland A's 1987-95
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

When Dennis Eckersley was traded to the A's in April of 1987, he had a successful 12-year career as a starting pitcher. By the time his nine seasons in Oakland concluded, he redefined the role of closer, saving an Athletics record 320 games. Born in Oakland and raised in Fremont, he was the AL MVP and Cy Young winner in 1992. Eckersley was a four-time All-Star with Oakland and was a member of the A's World Champions in 1989.

Rollie Fingers
Oakland A's 1968-76
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

Rollie Fingers made his ML debut with Oakland in 1968 and was used both as a starter and reliever over his first four seasons. He moved to the bullpen full time in 1972, when the A's began their run of three consecutive World Championships. Fingers spent the first nine seasons of his 17-year Hall of Fame career with Oakland. The mustachioed right-hander was a four-time All-Star with the A's and earned 1974 World Series MVP honors.

Charlie Finley
Kansas City A's 1961-67;
Oakland A's 1968-80
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

After purchasing the Kansas City A's following the 1960 season, Charlie Finley moved the club to Oakland in 1968 where the team he assembled would win three consecutive World Championships from 1972-74. He would be remembered as much for his off-field antics and innovations, as he proposed the designated hitter, interleague play and World Series night games. Finley also introduced baseball to Charlie O the mule, Harvey the mechanical rabbit, white cleats, colorful uniforms and more.

Ray Fosse
Oakland A's 1973-75, 1985-2021
Inducted Aug. 7, 2022

Ray Fosse blazed a unique trail to A's immortality. It began with three years as a player from 1973-75 and concluded with 37 seasons in the front office, including 36 as a broadcaster. Fosse was a catcher for the A's World Champion teams in 1973 and 1974 and he returned to Oakland in 1985 in a front office role. He moved into the radio booth in 1986 and was a mainstay on A's radio and television broadcasts until passing away following the 2021 season.

Jimmie Foxx
Philadelphia A's 1925-35
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Jimmie Foxx did not finish his senior year of high school as he went to spring training with the Philadelphia A's in 1925 and made his Major League debut later that year at the age of 17. He would go on to hit 302 home runs in 11 seasons as an Athletic, a franchise record that stood for 61 years. Foxx earned back-to-back MVP awards from 1932-33 and a Triple Crown in 1933. He represented the A's in the first three All-Star Games from 1933-35 and was a World Champion in 1929 and 30.

Jason Giambi
Oakland A's 1995-2001, 09
Inducted Aug. 6, 2023

Jason Giambi was a key presence both on and off the field in eight seasons with the A's. He hit .300 with 198 home runs, 715 RBI and a .406 on-base percentage in 1,036 games as an Athletic, earning American League Most Valuable Player honors in 2000 and AL All-Star honors in 2000-01. Giambi concluded his playing time with the A's as the only .300 career hitter in Oakland history and his leadership led to a relaxed clubhouse atmosphere that remained long after his playing days.

Robert "Lefty" Grove
Philadelphia A's 1925-33
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Lefty Grove pitched for nine seasons with the Philadelphia A's, leading the league in strikeouts seven times, ERA five times and wins four times. He won the pitching Triple Crown by leading the league in wins, ERA and strikeouts in back-to-back seasons from 1930-31. Grove capped that streak by going 31-4 with a 2.06 ERA and 175 strikeouts in 1931 to earn American League MVP honors. He was a member of the A's back-to-back World Champions in 1929-30 and was a 1933 All-Star.

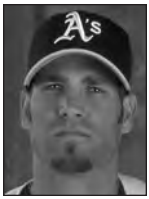

Walter A. Haas, Jr.
Oakland A's 1981-95
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

Walter A. Haas, Jr. purchased the A's following the 1980 season and during his 15 years as owner, Oakland won five American League West titles, three AL Pennants and the 1989 World Championship. The A's set franchise records for attendance five times, but Haas will be remembered just as much for his commitment to the community and staying in the background while bright young innovators grew the A's reputation to one of the best in baseball.

Rickey Henderson
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

Raised in Oakland and drafted by the A's, Rickey Henderson went on to become the greatest player in Oakland A's history and one of the greatest leadoff hitters of all time. He played 14 of his 25 seasons in an Oakland uniform and finished his career in 2003 as the all-time leader in stolen bases (1,406), runs scored (2,295) and walks (2,190). Henderson was a six-time All-Star with the A's, AL MVP in 1990 and a member of the 1989 A's World Champions.

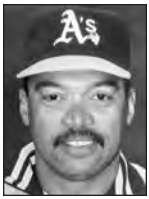

Tim Hudson
Oakland A's 1999-2004
Inducted Sept. 13, 2025

Tim Hudson had a 17-year career in the majors, the first six of which were spent the A's. He was the first of the A's "Big Three" pitchers that led the A's to four consecutive playoff appearances from 2000-03 to make his debut. Hudson won a league-leading 20 games in 2000 when he was named to his first of two All-Star teams with the Athletics. He finished his A's career with a 92-39 record and his .702 winning percentage is the best in Oakland A's history.

Jim "Catfish" Hunter
Kansas City A's 1965-67;
Oakland A's 1968-74
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

Jim "Catfish" Hunter was the anchor of the A's teams that won three consecutive World Championships from 1972 to 1974. He had four straight 20-win seasons with Oakland, including a career-high 25 victories in 1974 when he won the AL Cy Young. Hunter was a six-time All-Star with the A's and tossed the first perfect game in Oakland history on May 8, 1968. He pitched three seasons in Kansas City and seven in Oakland and was inducted to the National Hall of Fame in 1987.

Reggie Jackson
Kansas City A's 1967;
Oakland A's 1968-75, 87
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

"Mr. October" was born in 1973 when Reggie Jackson earned World Series MVP honors as the A's won their second of three straight World Championships. He was also named AL MVP that year after leading the league in runs, home runs and RBI. Jackson made his debut with the Kansas City A's in 1967, spent the next eight seasons with Oakland and then concluded his 21-year Hall of Fame career with the A's in 1987. He played in six All-Star Games in an Oakland uniform.

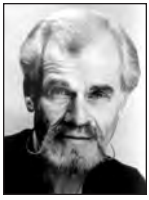

Bob Johnson
Philadelphia A's, 1933-42
Inducted Aug. 6, 2023

Bob Johnson played 10 of his 13 seasons in the majors with the Philadelphia A's from 1933-42 where he was a five-time All-Star. His 997 runs scored were a franchise record until Rickey Henderson broke the mark in 1993. Johnson slugged 20 or more home runs and scored 90 or more runs in each of his first nine seasons and had seven consecutive 100-RBI seasons from 1935-41. He finished his A's career with a .298 average, 252 home runs and 1,040 RBI in 1,459 games.

Eddie Joost
Philadelphia A's, 1947-54
Inducted August 17, 2024

A Bay Area native who played for the A's before the franchise moved to Oakland, Eddie Joost spent eight seasons with the Philadelphia A's from 1947-54. He hit .249 as an Athletic but walked at least 100 times in six straight seasons from 1947-52 and had a .392 on-base percentage. Joost was an All-Star in 1949 and 1952, received MVP votes five times over a six-year span from 1947-52 and was a player/manager for the A's in their final season in Philadelphia in 1954.

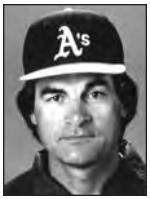

Bill King
Oakland A's 1981-2005
Inducted August 17, 2024

A's fans have been blessed with great radio broadcasters over the years, but no one will ever top Bill King, who spent 25 years in the booth. He is known not only for his memorable calls, but his distinctive handlebar mustache and beard, his "Holy Toledo" catch phrase and five decades broadcasting Warriors (1962-83), Raiders (1966-92) and A's (1981-2005) games. The Bay Area broadcasting legend was honored posthumously with the Ford Frick Award in 2017.

Carney Lansford
Oakland A's 1983-92
Inducted Aug. 6, 2023

The second in a line of great Oakland third basemen, Carney Lansford was an All-Star in 1988, a World Champion in 1989 and a key cog in the A's teams that won three straight pennants from 1988-90 and an AL West title in 1992. He set an Oakland record with a .336 batting average in 1989 and then went on to hit .455 in the ALCS and .438 in the World Series win over the Giants. Lansford was also a standout defensively and led AL third basemen in fielding in 1987, 88 and 90.

Tony La Russa
Oakland A's 1986-95
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

Tony La Russa managed the A's for 10 seasons from 1986 to 1995. Under his guidance, the A's won four American League West titles, three consecutive AL Pennants from 1988 to 1990 and the World Championship in 1989. La Russa won 798 games during his tenure with Oakland, including 104 in 1988 when he was named AL Manager of the Year. He would garner the honor again in 1992 and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2014.

Keith Lieppman
Oakland A's 1971-2022
Inducted Aug. 7, 2022

Keith Lieppman grew up in Missouri in the 1960's attending Kansas City A's games and would end up spending over 50 years with the club after it moved to Oakland. He played for nine seasons in the minors from 1971-79, managed for eight from 1980-87 and then served for more than 25 years as Director of Player Development. In his roles, he tutored many of the players that would win 11 American League West titles and make 15 playoff appearances from 1988-2020.

Connie Mack
Philadelphia A's 1901-54
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Connie Mack managed the A's for 50 seasons from 1901-50 and was part-owner of the club for all 54 seasons in Philadelphia. Under his leadership, the A's would win five World Championship and nine American League Pennants. He built two dynasties, winning back-to-back World Series in 1910-11 as well as 1913, and then did it again in 1929-30. Known for managing in a suit, with a derby or bowler in place of a baseball cap, the A's won 3,582 games with Mack at the helm.

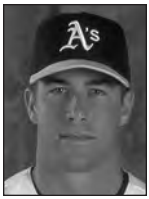

Mark McGwire
Oakland A's 1986-97
Inducted Sept. 21, 2019

Mark McGwire played 12 seasons with Oakland and hit 363 home runs, breaking the franchise record in 1996. He was named to nine American League All-Star teams, including six straight beginning in 1987 when he was named AL Rookie of the Year after hitting 49 home runs. He earned the AL Gold Glove for first basemen in 1990 and hit 52 home runs in 1996. The A's reached the postseason four times with McGwire, highlighted by a World Championship in 1989.

Monte Moore
Kansas City A's 1962-67
Oakland A's 1968-80, 88-92
Inducted Sept. 13, 2025

Monte Moore broadcasted A's games on radio and television for more than 20 years. He was hired by Charlie Finley to call Kansas City A's games in 1962 and continued his role as the voice of the A's when the club moved west to Oakland in 1968. During the A's run of three consecutive World Championships from 1972-74, Moore introduced the term "dinger" on his broadcasts and began bringing a bell to the ballpark, which he would ring when "The Swinging A's" homered.

Mark Mulder
Oakland A's 2000-04
Inducted Sept. 13, 2025

Mark Mulder pitched nine seasons in the majors in a promising career shortened by shoulder problems. He was one of the top pitchers in the game during his five seasons with the A's, compiling an 81-42 record and a 3.90 ERA in 150 starts. He won a league-leading 21 games in 2001 and was named to back-to-back All-Star games in 2003 and 2004, earning the start in 2004. Known for his economical use of pitches, Mulder led the league in shutouts and complete games twice.

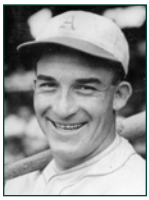

Eddie Plank
Philadelphia A's 1901-14
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Eddie Plank was a member of the original 1901 Philadelphia A's and in 14 seasons as Athletic, he won 284 games, started 459, completed 362, had 59 shutouts and struck out 1,985, all franchise records that still stand. He never led the American League in wins, strikeouts or ERA but was always one of the top pitchers in the game, earning him a spot in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1946. Plank's tenure with the A's included six AL Pennants and three World Championships.

Joe Rudi
Kansas City A's 1967;
Oakland A's 1968-76, 82
Inducted Aug. 7, 2022

The A's reached the World Series three straight years from 1972-74 but winning those series required clutch performances, and Joe Rudi delivered. He made one of the greatest catches in World Series history in 1972 against the Reds and then hit .333 with four RBI in both 1973 against the Mets and 1974 against the Dodgers. Rudi won three consecutive Gold Gloves from 1974-76, was a three-time All-Star and finished second in American League MVP balloting in 1972 and 1974.

Al Simmons
Philadelphia A's 1924-32; 40-41; 44
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

Al Simmons was a major factor in the A's three consecutive American League pennant winning clubs from 1929-31, hitting .346 with 92 home runs and 450 RBI. He led the AL in RBI in 1929 and then won back-to-back batting titles in 1930 and 31. Simmons hit .341 or better in seven consecutive seasons from 1925-31 and had a .356 average in 12 seasons with Philadelphia. He drove in at least 100 runs in each of his first nine seasons with the A's and had at least 200 hits five times.

Roy Steele
Oakland A's 1968-2005, 07-08
Inducted Aug. 6, 2023

For four decades, fans were blessed with "the voice of God" at the Coliseum. Roy Steele joined the A's as their public address announcer in 1968, their inaugural season in Oakland, and would miss just five games over the next 38 years before continuing in a part-time role over the next three seasons. He worked six World Series and an All-Star Game, and his booming bartitone introduced players from the Mustache Gang to Billy Ball, the Bash Brothers and Moneyball.

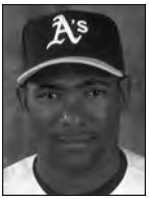

Terry Steinbach
Oakland A's 1986-96
Inducted August 17, 2024

Terry Steinbach homered in both his first and last at bat with the Oakland A's, and in between he established himself as one of the best catchers in franchise history. A three-time All-Star, including the All-Star Game MVP in 1988, Steinbach hit .275 with 132 home runs and 595 RBI in 1,199 games in 11 seasons with the A's. He was a member of the four American League West Championship Teams from 1988-90 and 92, and drove in seven runs in the A's four-game sweep of San Francisco in the 1989 World Series.

Dave Stewart
Oakland A's 1986-92, 95
Inducted Sept. 5, 2018

Born in Oakland and a graduate of St. Elizabeth High School, Dave Stewart spent six seasons in the majors with three teams before breaking through with the A's. He joined Oakland in 1986 and would go on to win 20 games in four consecutive seasons from 1987-90. The big-game pitcher went 8-3 with a 2.22 ERA in 14 postseason starts for Oakland, including two wins in the 1989 World Series when he earned MVP honors in the A's sweep of the Giants.

Miguel Tejada
Oakland A's 1997-2003
Inducted August 17, 2024

The A's Iron Man, Miguel Tejada played the first seven of his 16 seasons with the A's. He batted .270 with 156 home runs and 604 RBI in 936 games in an A's uniform and finished his Oakland career by playing in a franchise record 594 consecutive games. Tejada had his most memorable season in 2002 when he was named AL MVP and was a key contributor to the A's 20-game winning streak, collecting walk-off hits in wins 18 and 19. He was the A's shortstop in their four straight playoff appearances from 2000-03.

Gene Tenace
Oakland A's 1969-76
Inducted Aug. 6, 2023

Gene Tenace played eight seasons in an Oakland uniform and reached the postseason five times. He began the A's run of three consecutive World Championships from 1972-74 by earning MVP honors in the 1972 World Series against the Reds after hitting four home runs and driving in nine of the A's 16 runs. Tenace was an All-Star in 1975, had four straight 20-homer seasons from 1973-76 and walked 100 or more times in three straight seasons from 1973-75.

Steve Vucinich
Oakland A's 1968-2021
Inducted Aug. 7, 2022

The one constant in the A's first 54 years in Oakland was Steve Vucinich. The A's have been erased like a blackboard, rebuilt and then erased again. But Vuc has marked the time. From the first batter in Oakland history, Bert Campaneris, to the final acquisitions during his tenur, Yan Gomes and Josh Harrison, Steve has known them all. He joined the organization as a ballboy in 1968, moved to the visiting clubhouse in 1974 and then returned to the home clubhouse as equipment manager in 1994.

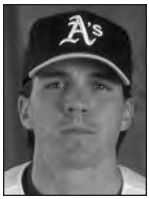

George "Rube" Waddell
Philadelphia A's 1902-07
Inducted Aug. 22, 2021

A fan favorite at the turn of the century not only for his skills on the mound but for his eccentricities that earned him the nickname Rube, George Waddell pitched six seasons for the Philadelphia A's from 1902-07. He led the AL in strikeouts in each of those six campaigns and won the pitching Triple Crown in 1905 with a 27-10 record, a 1.48 ERA and 287 strikeouts. Waddell fanned a career-high 349 batters in 1904 and his 24 wins in 1902 led the A's to their first AL Pennant.

Dick Williams
Kansas City A's 1959-60
Oakland A's 1971-73
Inducted August 17, 2024

Dick Williams managed the A's for just three seasons but in those years, the A's won World Series titles in 1972 and 1973 and had three straight AL West crowns from 1971-73. Oakland had three 90-win seasons with Williams at the helm and his .603 (288-190) winning percentage is the best in Athletics history. Williams also played two seasons for the Kansas City A's from 1959-60 and hit .276 with 28 home runs and 140 RBI in 257 games. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008.

Barry Zito
Oakland A's 2000-06, 15
Inducted Sept. 13, 2025

Of the "Big Three" trio of pitchers that anchored the A's starting rotation in the early 21st century, Barry Zito had the longest tenure, logging a 102-63 record and a 3.58 ERA in 225 games over eight seasons, including five playoff appearances. He won the American League Cy Young Award in 2002 after leading the league in wins and was a three-time All-Star. He returned to the A's in 2015 and, in a nostalgic moment, faced former teammate Tim Hudson of the Giants at the Coliseum in the penultimate start of his career.

POSTSEASON SERIES YEAR-BY-YEAR RECAP

1905 WORLD SERIES

The A's make their first appearance in the World Series and lose to the New York Giants, four games to one. Three of the losses come against Christy Mathewson who tosses three complete game shutouts. The A's collect just 25 hits in the series for a .161 batting average and score just three runs. Topsy Hartsel paces the A's offense with a .294 batting average and Bris Lord has the only two RBI. The A's use three pitchers in the Series and all toss complete games. Chief Bender makes two starts and has a 1.06 ERA.

The A's lose the first game in Philadelphia, 3-0, as Mathewson tosses a four-hit shutout. Chief Bender returns the favor in the second game of the series as he tosses a four-hit shutout and strikes out nine in a 3-0 A's win at New York. Lord has RBI singles in the third and eighth innings. Mathewson tosses a four-hit shutout in the Giants 9-0 win in Game 3 and Joe McGinnity blanks the A's on five hits in a 1-0 win in Game 4. Eddie Plank allows just four hits in Game 4 and the only run of the game is unearned after a Monte Cross error. Mathewson tossed a six-hit shutout in Game 5 as the Giants clinch the series with a 2-0 win.

1910 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their first World Series and use just two pitchers to defeat the Chicago Cubs, four games to one. Jack Coombs wins three of the games and posts a 3.33 ERA while Chief Bender is 1-1 with a 1.93 ERA. Eddie Collins paces the A's offense with a .429 batting average and four doubles and Frank Baker hits .409. Danny Murphy connects for the only home run of the series and leads the A's with nine RBI. The A's hit .316 and score 35 runs in the five games while the two pitchers combine for a 2.76 ERA and allow 15 runs.

The A's win the first two games in Philadelphia as Bender tosses a three-hitter in Game 1 and strikes out eight in a 4-1 win while Baker has three hits and two RBI. Coombs allows eight hits and nine walks in Game 2 but the Cubs strand 14 in a 9-3 A's win. Eddie Collins has three of the A's 14 hits and all nine Athletics collect at least one hit. The series moves to Chicago for Game 3 and Coombs comes back on one day of rest and defeats the Cubs, 12-5, collecting three hits and three RBI. Harry Davis and Jack Berry add three hits each and Barry and Murphy have three RBI. Bender suffers the A's only loss in Game 4 when the Cubs win 4-3 in 10 innings. The A's have a 3-2 lead entering the ninth but the Cubs score once in the ninth and once in the 10th for the win. The A's wrap up the series with a 7-2 win in Game 5 as Coombs picks up his third win of the series. Collins has three hits and the A's score five times in the eighth to break open a 2-1 game.

1911 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their second consecutive World Championship as they defeat the New York Giants, four games to two. The A's pitching staff, which consists of Chief Bender, Jack Coombs and Eddie Plank, allows just 13 runs in the series for a 1.29 ERA. Bender goes 2-1 with a 1.04 ERA, Coombs is 1-0 with a 1.35 ERA and Plank is 1-1 with a 1.86 ERA. Frank "Home Run" Baker earns his nickname as he paces the A's offense with a .375 batting average, two home runs and five RBI. Jack Barry hits .368 and the A's offense hits .244 with 27 runs scored in the six games.

The A's lose Game 1 at New York by a 2-1 score as Bender strikes out 11 in eight innings in a complete game effort but loses to Christy Mathewson who tosses a six-hitter. The A's then win each of the next three games, beginning with a 3-1 win at Philadelphia in Game 2. Plank tosses a five-hitter and Baker breaks a 1-1 tie with a two-run home run in the sixth inning. Game 3 lasts 11 innings at New York and the A's are 3-2 winners. Trailing 1-0 entering the ninth inning, Baker homers to tie the game and the A's score two in the 11th for the win. Coombs goes the distance, allowing just three hits in 11 innings. The series is delayed for seven days because of rain but it resumes with a 4-2 A's win in Philadelphia in Game 4. Bender tosses a seven-hitter, Barry has three hits and Eddie Collins, Danny Murphy and Baker have two hits each. The A's lead 3-0 after six innings in Game 5 but the Giants score once in the bottom of the seventh, twice in the ninth and once in the 10th for the win. The A's then wrap up the series with a 13-2 win at Philadelphia, scoring seven times in the seventh inning. Murphy has four hits, Bris Lord adds three and Bender tosses a four-hitter.

1913 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their third World Championship over a four-year span as they defeat the New York Giants, four games to one. The A's use just three pitchers in the series with all going the distance, including Chief Bender, who wins Games 1 and 4, and Eddie Plank, who posts a 1-1 record and a 0.95 ERA. Frank Baker paces the A's offense with a .450 batting average and matches Wally Schang for the team lead with seven RBI. Eddie Collins hits .421 and steals three bases.

Bender allows 11 hits in Game 1 at New York, but the A's defeat the Giants, 6-4. Collins goes 3 for 3 and scores three runs and Baker is 3 for 4 with three RBI, including a two-run home run. The A's lone loss comes in a Game 2 at Philadelphia, a 3-0 decision in 10 innings. Plank tosses nine shutout innings before allowing three runs in the top of the 10th, while Christy Mathewson blanks the A's on eight hits. The series returns to Philadelphia for Game 3 and the A's score five times in the first two innings en route to an 8-2 win. Collins has his second three-hit game of the series and drives in three runs and Joe Bush tosses a five-hitter. The A's take a 6-0 lead into the seventh inning of Game 4 at Philadelphia and hold on to win 6-5. Jack Barry has three hits and Schang goes 2-for-2 with four RBI. The A's then clinch the series at New York with a 3-1 win in Game 5 as Plank tosses a two-hitter, allowing just one unearned run in the fifth inning. The A's score early again as Baker has a sacrifice fly in the first inning and a RBI single in the A's two-run third.

1914 WORLD SERIES

The A's return to the World Series for the fourth time in five years but are swept in four games by the Boston Braves. The pitching staff posts a 3.41 ERA in the series, including 1.00 by Eddie Plank The offense is held to a .172 batting average and scores just six runs in the four games. Frank Baker leads the A's with four hits in the series.

The A's drop a 7-1 decision in Game 1 at Philadelphia as Dick Rudolph limits the A's to an unearned run in the second inning. Chief Bender takes the loss, allowing six runs in 5.1 innings. Bill James shuts out the A's 1-0 in Game 2, yielding just two hits. The game is scoreless over the first eight innings before Plank allows a Les Mann RBI single with two outs in the top of the ninth. The series moves to Boston for Game 3, a 5-4 A's loss in 12 innings. The score is tied at 2-2 when Frank Baker delivers a two-run single in the top of the 10th inning. Joe Bush, who goes the distance for the A's, then allows two runs in the bottom of the 10th. Bush takes the loss when his own throwing error on a Herbie Moran sacrifice bunt attempt in the 12th allows the winning run to score. The A's then drop a 3-1 decision in Game 4 as Rudolph again holds the A's to just one run. Starting pitcher Bob Shawkey allows three runs in 5.0 innings for the loss.

1929 WORLD SERIES

The A's return to the World Series for the first time in 15 years and win their fourth World Championship, besting the Chicago Cubs four games to one. The pitching staff posts a 2.40 ERA, including 1.42 by Howard Ehmke. The offense hits .281 and scores 26 runs in the five-game series. Jimmy Dykes hits .421 and Mickey Cochrane adds a .400 batting average. Jimmie Foxx, Mule Haas and Al Simmons all hit two home runs each.

Ehmke strikes out 13 and tosses an eight-hitter in the opener as the A's win 3-1 at Chicago. Foxx breaks a scoreless tie with a solo home run in the seventh inning and the A's have a 3-0 lead before Ehmke allows an unearned run in the bottom of the ninth. In Game 2, Simmons drives in four runs and Foxx is 3-for-5 with three RBI and his second home run in a 9-3 victory. The series moves to Philadelphia for Game 3 when the A's lose their only game of the series, 3-1. George Earnshaw goes the distance and strikes out 10, after tossing 4.2 innings two days earlier. The A's fall behind 8-0 in Game 4 before scoring 10 times in the bottom of the seventh inning to win, 10-8. Haas and Simmons both homer in the inning and Haas and Jimmy Dykes drive in three runs each as the A's send 15 batters to the plate. Philadelphia then clinches the series with a 3-2 win in Game 5. Ehmke allows two runs in 3.2 innings before Rube Walberg comes on to pitch 5.1 innings of scoreless relief. The A's trail 2-0 entering the bottom of the ninth before Haas hits a two-run home run to tie the game. Bing Miller then has a walk-off double to drive in Simmons and win the series.

1930 WORLD SERIES

The Athletics win back-to-back World Series for the second time, defeating St. Louis four games to two. The pitching staff allows 12 runs in the six-game series for a 1.73 ERA. George Earnshaw goes 2-0 with a 0.72 ERA in three starts and Lefty Grove picks up the other two wins, posting a 1.42 ERA in three games, two starts. Offensively, the A's hit just .197 but add six home runs. Al Simmons hits .364 with two home runs and Jimmie Foxx bats .333. Mickey Cochrane adds two home runs and Jimmy Dykes drives in a team-best five runs.

Grove tosses a complete game in Game 1, a 5-2 A's win at Philadelphia. The A's are held to just five hits in the game, including a pair of solo home runs by Simmons and Cochrane. Earnshaw fires a six-hitter in the A's 6-1 win in Game 2. Simmons has two hits and Cochrane homers again, a solo shot in the first inning. The Cardinals win Game 3 in St. Louis as Bill Hallahan shuts out the A's on seven hits in a 5-0 win. Jesse Haines four-hits the A's in a 3-1 loss in Game 4 to even the series at two games each. Earnshaw and Grove then combine on a three-hit shutout in a 2-0 win in Game 5. Foxx hits a two-run home run in the ninth inning to account for all the scoring. The series returned to Philadelphia for Game 6 and the A's win their fifth and final World Championship in Philadelphia with a 7-1 victory. Earnshaw tosses a complete-game five-hitter and Dykes and Simmons both homer.

1931 WORLD SERIES

The A's and Cardinals meet in the World Series for the second consecutive season but the A's lose in seven games. The pitching staff posts a 2.66 ERA, including 1.88 by George Earnshaw and 2.42 by Lefty Grove, who picks up two of the A's three wins. Earnshaw and Grove both start three games each. The offense hits .220 and scores 22 runs in the seven-game series. Jimmie Foxx hits .348 and Al Simmons bats .333 with two of the A's three home runs and eight RBI.

The series opens in St. Louis and the A's take a 1-0 lead with a 6-2 win in Game 1. Grove goes the distance, allowing 12 hits, and Simmons drives in three runs, including a two-run home run in the seventh. Bill Hallahan tosses a three-hit shutout as the A's lose Game 2, 2-0. The A's then fall behind in the series with a 5-2 loss in Game 3 at Philadelphia. Burleigh Grimes no hits the A's over the first seven innings before Bing Miller singles in the eighth. Al Simmons hits a two-run home run in the ninth for the A's only runs. The A's even the series at two games each with a 3-0 win in Game 4. Earnshaw tosses a two-hit shutout and Foxx hits a solo home run in the sixth. St. Louis wins the final game in Philadelphia, 5-1, but the A's win Game 6 at St. Louis, 8-1 to force a seventh game. In the final game, Grimes again shuts down the A's in a 4-2 win. He does not allow a run over the first eight innings before yielding a pinch hit two-run single to Doc Cramer with two outs in the ninth. Max Bishop comes to the plate as the potential winning run but Hallahan relieves Grimes and gets Bishop to fly out to end the series.

1971 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

In their first trip to the ALCS, the Oakland A's ran into the defending World Champion Baltimore Orioles, losing in three straight games. Touted A's pitchers Vida Blue and Jim "Catfish" Hunter ran into problems during the series, leading to the A's downfall. Offensively, the A's got solid performances out of third baseman Sal Bando and right fielder Reggie Jackson, who hit .364 and .333 respectively.

In Game 1, Vida Blue took a 3-1 lead into the bottom of the seventh before allowing a RBI single to Mark Belanger, a RBI double by Curt Motton and a two-run double by Paul Blair. ALCS MVP Mike Cuellar tossed a complete game six-hitter to defeat the A's in Game 2. Jim Hunter also went the distance for the A's, allowing seven hits, including four home runs. In Game 3, Reggie Jackson homered twice and Sal Bando once but that was the A's only scoring as Jim Palmer tossed a complete game seven-hitter.

1972 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Forty-one years after the Philadelphia Athletics won the American League Pennant, the Oakland A's recorded the organization's next pennant with a hard fought three games to two triumph over Detroit. It was the first time in the four-year history of the ALCS that the playoffs had gone more than three games. The A's used superb pitching, scoring just a total of 13 runs in the five games, but allowing only 10. The series also saw a near brawl between Tigers manager Billy Martin and A's shortstop Campy Campaneris, who threw his bat at Tiger hurler Lerrin LaGrow after being hit by a pitch.

In Game 1, the Tigers scored a run in the top of the 11th inning on an Al Kaline home run to take a 2-1 lead but Gonzalo Marquez tied the game in the bottom of the inning on a pinch-hit RBI single. A Kaline throwing error on the play allowed Gene Tenace to score the winning run. ALCS MVP Blue Moon Odom tossed a three-hit shutout in a 5-0 A's win in Game 2. Campaneris had three hits, two runs and two steals but was suspended for the remainder of the playoffs by American League President Joe Cronin after the bat throwing incident. Joe Coleman blanked the A's 3-0 on seven hits in Game 3 and the Tigers won 4-3 in 10 innings in Game 4. The A's scored two runs in the top of the 10th for a 3-1 lead but the Tigers scored three times in the bottom of the 10th, including the game-winning single by Jim Northrup. In Game 5, Vida Blue pitched four innings of shutout relief to pick up the save for Odom. Gene Tenace's two-out RBI single in the fourth inning scored George Hendrick with the winning run.

1972 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their first World Championship in Oakland, the first for the Athletics franchise since 1930, defeating Cincinnati, four games to three. Six of the seven games are decided by one run and Gene Tenace picks up the offensive slack for Reggie Jackson who misses the entire series after pulling a hamstring in the ALCS. Tenace hits .348 with four home runs and nine RBI in the seven games to earn World Series MVP honors.

Tenace homered in his first two at bats of the series, hitting a two-run homer in the second and a solo shot in the fifth to lead the A's to a 3-2 win in Game 1. Catfish Hunter tossed 8 2/3 innings of six-hit, one-run baseball in Game 2 before yielding to Rollie Fingers who got the final out in the A's 2-1 win. Joe Rudi homered and made a spectacular catch off the bat of Denis Menke in the ninth. After a rainout in Oakland, the Reds won Game 3, 1-0 on a combined three-hitter by Jack Billingham and Clay Carroll. In Game 4, the A's trailed 2-1 entering the bottom of the ninth before scoring twice on pinch hit RBI singles by Don Mincher and Angel Mangual to take a 3-1 lead in the series. The Reds scored once in the eighth and once in the ninth off Rollie Fingers to win Game 5, 5-4 and then won 8-1 in Game 6 to even the series at three games each. In Game 7, the score was tied at one after five innings when Tenace delivered a RBI double to give the A's the lead. Sal Bando followed with a RBI double and Rollie Fingers pitched two scoreless innings for the save.

1973 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's win their second consecutive American League Pennant, defeating Baltimore three games to two. It was the second consecutive year that the ALCS had gone the maximum five games after having been decided in three games each year previously. In a rematch of the 1971 ALCS, it was pitching again that was the key, this time for the A's. Five of the six A's pitchers had ERAs under 2.00 for the series.

Jim Palmer tossed a five-hit shutout to defeat the A's 6-0 in Game 1 but the A's evened the series with a 6-3 win in Game 2. Sal Bando homered twice off Dave McNally and Campy Campaneris and Joe Rudi also homered for the A's. The A's won Game 3, 2-1 in 11 innings as both Ken Holtzman and Mike Cuellar went the distance. Holtzman allowed just three hits and Cuellar had allowed just three before Campaneris homered to lead off the bottom of the 11th. The A's appeared to have the series locked up in Game 4 as they had a 4-0 lead after six innings. Baltimore then scored four times off Vida Blue in the seventh and once off losing pitcher Rollie Fingers in the eighth for a 5-4 win. ALCS MVP Catfish Hunter then tossed a five-hit shutout in Game 5 as the A's won 3-0 to clinch the series.

1973 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their second consecutive World Championship, winning Games 6 and 7 to defeat the New York Mets, four games to three. Reggie Jackson was named MVP of the series after hitting .310 with a home run and six RBI and Ken Holtzman was the winning pitcher in two of the A's four victories. The series also featured the "firing" of Mike Andrews by A's owner Charlie Finley after his two 12th-inning errors in Game 2 helped the Mets to a 10-7 win. Andrews did make another appearance in the series, grounding out as a pinch hitter in Game 4.

Holtzman picks up the win in the A's 2-1 victory in Game 1. The A's collect just three hits off Mets starter Jon Matlack but all come in the third inning as Holtzman doubles and scores on an error and Joe Rudi has a RBI single. The Mets score four runs off Rollie Fingers in the 12th inning of Game 2 to defeat the A's 10-7, but only one run was earned as Andrews committed two errors. Game 3 went 11 innings but the A's won 3-2 on a RBI single by Campy Campaneris in the top of the 11th. The A's lost Game 4, 6-1 as Rusty Staub was a perfect 4-for-4 to even the series at two games apiece. Jerry Koosman and Tug McGraw then combined to three-hit the A's in a 2-0 win in Game 5 but the A's came back to win the final two games in Oakland. In Game 6, Reggie Jackson doubled twice, singled and drove in two runs in the A's 3-1 victory. The A's had gone the entire series without a home run before Campaneris hit a two-run home run in the third inning in Game 2. Jackson added a two-run homer later in the inning and Darold Knowles retired Wayne Garrett with runners on first and third in the ninth to save the A's 5-2 win.

1974 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's and Orioles square off in the American League Championship Series for the third time in the last four years and the A's win their third straight American League Pennant, defeating the Orioles three games to one. Pitching was the key as Vida Blue, Ken Holtzman and Blue Moon Odom combined for 21.1 innings of scoreless pitching. Ray Fosse paced the A's offense with a .333 batting average, one home run and three RBI.

The A's lose Game 1 of the series, 6-3 as Paul Blair, Brooks Robinson and Bobby Grich all homer off A's starter Catfish Hunter. Ken Holtzman gets the A's back on track in Game 2 with a five-hit shutout in the A's 5-0 win and Ray Fosse adds three hits and three RBI. Game 3 is a pitchers duel between ALCS MVP Vida Blue and Jim Palmer and Blue comes out on the winning end when Sal Bando hits a solo home run in the fourth inning for the only run of the game. Palmer would allow just three other hits but Blue allowed just two and did not walk a batter. Jim Hunter tosses seven scoreless innings in Game 5 and A's pitchers extend their scoreless streak to 30 innings before Rollie Fingers allows a run in the ninth in the A's 2-1 win. The A's collect just one hit but walk 11 times.

1974 WORLD SERIES

The A's win their third consecutive World Championship to become the first team to win at least three straight since the New York Yankees won five straight, 1949-53. The A's defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers in five games in a series where four of the five games were decided by a 3-2 score. Bert Campaneris hit .353 in the series and Joe Rudi topped the A's with four RBI. World Series MVP Rollie Fingers had a win and two saves while posting a 1.93 ERA and the A's used just five pitchers the entire series.

The A's open the series with a 3-2 win as Rollie Fingers pitched 4.1 innings of relief for the win before Catfish Hunter comes on to strike out Joe Ferguson in the bottom of the ninth with the tying run at first base. The Dodgers even the series with a 3-2 win in Game 2 as Don Sutton shuts out the A's on four hits over the first eight innings. Joe Rudi has a two-run single in the ninth but the A's rally falls short. Hunter starts Game 3 and kept the Dodgers off the board over the first seven innings in a 3-2 win. Ken Holtzman is the winning pitcher in the A's 5-2 win in Game 4 and he also contributes to the A's offense with a solo home run in the third inning. The A's trailed 2-1 entering the bottom of the sixth but score four times, highlighted by Jim Holt's two-run pinch hit single. Rollie Fingers clinches his series MVP honors by pitching two scoreless innings for the save in the A's 3-2 win in Game 5. Joe Rudi homers to lead off the seventh inning to break a 2-2 tie.

1975 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's streak of three consecutive American League pennants is snapped by Boston as the Red Sox sweep the A's in three games. After posting a team ERA under 3.00 in each of the previous three ALCS wins, the A's team ERA in 1975 ballooned to 4.32. Sal Bando paced the A's offense with a .500 batting average and Reggie Jackson drove in three of the seven runs the A's scored in the series.

Luis Tiant pitched a three-hitter in Boston's 7-1 win in Game 1 at Fenway Park. Three A's errors led to two runs in the first inning but the A's still trailed just 2-0 before Boston scored five in the seventh. The A's took a 3-0 lead in Game 2, highlighted by a Reggie Jackson two-run home run in the first inning but Boston tied the game with three in the fourth off Vida Blue. Rollie Fingers then allowed three runs in four innings as the A's lost 6-3. The series moved to Oakland for Game 3 but the Red Sox built a 4-0 lead in a 5-3 win. The A's started their Game 1 starter, Ken Holtzman, and he allowed four runs in 4 2/3 innings.

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's sweep a three-game series from Kansas City in baseball's first ever Division Series, pitting first and second half winners in each division in a season interrupted by a strike. The A's pitching staff allows just two runs in the entire series and the offense is paced by Dwayne Murphy who is 6-for-11 in the three-game series.

Mike Norris tosses a four-hit shutout in Game 1, a 4-0 A's victory at Kansas City. Wayne Gross hit a three-run home run in the fourth inning. The A's get their second consecutive complete game in Game 2 as Steve McCatty pitches a six-hitter in the A's 2-1 win. Tony Armas had a RBI double in the first inning, and after the Royals tied the game in the fifth, Armas added a RBI double in the eighth for the win. The A's complete the sweep with a 4-1 win in Oakland in Game 3. Armas had a RBI single in the first and three Kansas City errors led to a run in the third. After the Royals scored a run in the fourth, Dave McKay homered and Dwayne Murphy had a RBI single in the bottom of the inning.

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's are swept by the New York Yankees in three games in their first ALCS appearance in seven years. The A's are outscored 20-4 in the three-game set, compiling a .222 batting average while allowing a 6.84 ERA. Rickey Henderson provides most of the offense as he is 4-for-11 with two doubles, a triple, an RBI and two stolen bases.

The Yankees score three times in the first inning off A's starter Mike Norris in Game 1 en route to a 3-1 victory. Dwayne Murphy drives in Rob Picciolo with the A's lone run in the first inning. The A's take a 3-1 lead in Game 2 before New York scores seven times in the bottom of the fourth inning to take an 8-3 lead. Steve McCatty takes the loss, allowing five runs on six hits in 3 1/3 innings and all five A's pitchers allow at least one run. The Yankees then clinch the series with a 4-0 victory in Game 3 as Dave Righetti, Ron Davis and Rich Gossage combine to blank the A's on five hits.

1988 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's sweep the Boston Red Sox in four games to win their first American League pennant in 14 years. The A's hit .299 in the series and the pitching staff posts a 2.00 ERA while holding the Red Sox to a .206 batting average. Dennis Eckersley was named ALCS MVP after saving all four games and the bullpen recorded three of the wins. Dave Henderson hit .375 and Jose Canseco hit three of the A's seven home runs.

Jose Canseco homers in the fourth inning of Game 1 but Dave Henderson provides the game-winning single in the eighth inning in the A's 2-1 victory. Game 2 is a scoreless tie until the Red Sox score twice in the sixth off Storm Davis but Jose Canseco hit a two-run home run and Mark McGwire added a RBI single in the seventh to give the A's a 3-2 lead. After the Red Sox tie the game, Walt Weiss has the game-winning RBI single in the ninth. The A's outscore the Red Sox 10-6 in Game 3 as Carney Lansford, McGwire and Ron Hassey have three hits each while Hassey drives in three runs. The A's clinch the series with a 4-1 win in Game 4 as Dave Stewart allows one run in seven innings for the win. Jose Canseco homered in the first and Dave Henderson had an RBI single in the third before the A's score two insurance runs in the eighth.

1988 WORLD SERIES

The A's return to the World Series for the first time in 14 years when they also met the Dodgers. After winning the series in five games in 1974, the A's lose to the Dodgers in five games in 1988. The A's hit just .177 in the series and are outscored 21-11 in the five games. Jose Canseco collects just one hit in the series but leads the A's with five RBI. Storm Davis loses twice and posts an 11.25 ERA.

Canseco hits a grand slam in the second inning of Game 1 to give the A's a 4-2 lead before Kirk Gibson hits a pinch-hit, two-out, two-run home run in the bottom of the ninth to lift the Dodgers to a 5-4 win. Orel Hershiser shuts out the A's on three hits in a 6-0 Los Angeles win in Game 2. Davis allows six runs in 3.1 innings and Dave Parker has all three of the A's hits. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 and the A's get their only win of the series when Mark McGwire breaks a 1-1 tie with a one-out home run in the bottom of the ninth. The Dodgers score two runs in the first inning of Game 4 and lead the rest of the way in a 4-3 win. Dave Henderson collects four hits. Hershiser clinches World Series MVP honors by tossing a four-hitter in Game 5 to defeat the A's 5-2.

1989 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's win their second consecutive American League Pennant by defeating Toronto, four games to one. Rickey Henderson runs away with ALCS MVP honors, batting .400 with eight runs scored, two home runs, five RBI and eight stolen bases in the five game series. Dave Parker also homers twice, Dave Stewart wins both of his starts and Dennis Eckersley saves three of the A's four wins.

The A's win Game 1 by a 7-3 score, but were trailing 3-2 entering the sixth. Mark McGwire ties the game with a solo home run and Henderson breaks up a double play that leads to two more runs. Stewart and Eckersley do not allow a hit after a fourth inning home run by Ernie Whitt. Henderson goes 2-for-2 with two walks, two runs and four steals to lead the A's to a 6-3 win in Game 2 as Mike Moore allows just one unearned run in seven innings for the win. The series moves to Toronto for Game 3 and the Blue Jays record a 7-3 win, scoring six runs off Storm Davis after the A's build a 3-0 lead. Jose Canseco hits a home run into the fifth deck at Skydome to highlight the A's 6-5 win in Game 4. Henderson hits two home runs and also drives in four runs. The A's then clinch the series with a 4-3 win in Game 5, building a 4-0 lead before holding on as the Blue Jays score two in the eighth and three in the ninth. Stewart picks up the win and the A's offense collects just four hits.

1989 WORLD SERIES

Oakland sweeps San Francisco for the A's first World Championship in 15 years in a series halted 12 days after an earthquake struck just prior to Game 3. The A's outscore the Giants 32-14 in the four-game set, hitting nine home runs and batting .301. Dave Stewart earns series MVP honors with two wins and a 1.69 ERA, Mike Moore wins the other two games and Rickey Henderson hits .474.

Stewart tosses a five-hit shutout in Game 1 as the A's win 5-0 in Oakland. The A's score three times in the second and Dave Parker and Walt Weiss hit solo home runs in the third and fourth innings. Moore and the A's bullpen hold the Giants to one run in a 5-1 victory in Game 2. With the score tied 1-1 after three innings, the A's break the game open with a four-run fourth, highlighted by Terry Steinbach's three-run homer. The series moves to San Francisco for Game 3 and the A's outslug the Giants 13-7. Dave Henderson homers twice and Tony Phillips, Jose Canseco and Carney Lansford also homer as the A's tie a series record with five home runs. Moore picks up the win in the A's 9-6 win in Game 4 and also adds a two-run double. Rickey Henderson homers and collects three hits as the A's lead 8-0 entering the bottom of the sixth.

1990 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's sweep Boston in the American League Championship Series for the second time in the last three years and become the first team since the 1976-78 New York Yankees to win three straight pennants. The A's pitching staff held the Red Sox to four runs, one in each game, while the offense hit .299 with no home runs. Dave Stewart picked up two wins and posted a 1.13 ERA to earn ALCS MVP honors and Terry Steinbach (.455), Carney Lansford (.438) and Mike Gallego (.400) all hit .400.

Dave Stewart and Roger Clemens engaged in a pitchers duel in Game 1 and when Clemens left after six innings, the A's trailed 1-0. The A's then scored nine runs off the Sox bullpen, including seven in the ninth, to win 9-1. Rickey Henderson had three RBI, Lansford and Steinbach had three hits each and Stewart allows one run in eight innings. Boston again took a 1-0 lead in Game 2, but the A's scored four unanswered runs this time, tying the game on a Harold Baines RBI single in the fourth and taking the lead on a Baines ground out in the seventh. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 and starts in a familiar way as Boston scores a run in the second before the A's score twice in the fourth and sixth innings to win 4-1. The A's finally score first in Game 4, scoring three times in the second highlighted by a two-run double by Mike Gallego. Dave Stewart pitches eight scoreless innings before allowing a run in the ninth and Rick Honeycutt gets the final three outs for the save in the A's 3-1 win.

1990 WORLD SERIES

The A's are swept by Cincinnati in the World Series, the fourth sweep in which the A's were involved in six postseason series from 1988-90. The Reds outscore the A's 22-8, shutting out Oakland in Game 1 and holding the A's to one run in Game 4. The A's hit .207 as a team led by Rickey Henderson (.333). Dave Stewart posts a 2.77 ERA but loses twice.

Former Athletic Jose Rijo shuts out the A's in Game 1 at Cincinnati, 7-0. He combines with Rob Dibble and Randy Myers on a nine-hit shutout as the A's strand 11. Dave Stewart takes the loss, allowing four runs on three hits and four walks in four innings. The A's lose 5-4 in 10 innings in Game 2 as Dennis Eckersley allows three consecutive hits, including the game winning RBI single to Joe Oliver. Jose Canseco's solo home run highlights the A's three-run third which puts Oakland ahead 4-2 but the Reds score one in the fourth and one in the eighth to tie the game. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 but the Reds win 8-2, scoring seven times in the third inning. Mike Moore allows six runs in 2 2/3 innings for the loss and Scott Sanderson allows two more. A Harold Baines two-run home run and a Rickey Henderson solo shot account for the A's scoring. Dave Stewart tosses a complete game in Game 4, but the A's lose 2-1 as Jose Rijo and Randy Myers combine on a two-hitter. Carney Lansford has a RBI single in the first. Stewart shuts out the Reds over the first seven innings before Cincinnati scores two in the eighth on a fielder's choice and a Hal Morris sacrifice fly.

1992 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's return to the ALCS for the fourth time in the last five years, but lose for the first time during that stretch as Toronto wins the series, 4-2. The A's hit .251 as a team led by Harold Baines (.440) and Jerry Browne (.400). Ruben Sierra leads Oakland with seven RBI. Dave Stewart has one of the A's two wins and posts a 2.70 ERA.

The A's open the series with a 4-3 win in Game 1 at Toronto as Harold Baines breaks a 3-3 tie with a ninth inning home run. Oakland scores three in the first on home runs by Mark McGwire and Terry Steinbach but Dave Stewart allows single runs in the fifth, sixth and eighth innings. Toronto comes back to win Game 2, 3-1 as David Cone shuts out the A's over the first eight innings before Baines has a RBI single in the ninth. Mike Moore allows three runs in seven innings for the loss. The Blue Jays win the first game in Oakland, 7-5 as Juan Guzman defeats Ron Darling. The A's collect 13 hits but strand 11 runners. Toronto then goes up 3-1 in the series with a 7-6, 11 inning win in Game 4. The A's score five times in the third and lead 6-1 entering the eighth. The Blue Jays score three times in the eighth and then tie the game on a two-run home run by Roberto Alomar off Dennis Eckersley in the ninth. A Pat Borders sacrifice fly off Kelly Downs in the 11th is the game winner. Dave Stewart keeps the A's alive with a complete game seven hitter as Oakland wins Game 5, 6-2. Jerry Browne provides the offense with four hits and two RBI and Ruben Sierra adds three RBI. The series returns to Toronto for Game 6 and the Blue Jays clinch the AL Pennant with a 9-2 win. Mike Moore takes the loss, allowing six runs on seven hits in 2.2 innings.

2000 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's return to postseason play for the first time since 1992 and take the eventual World Champion New York Yankees to five games before losing the series, 3-2. The A's outscore New York 23-19, thanks to an 11-1 win in Game 4. Oakland hits .263 as a team led by Ramon Hernandez (.375). The pitching staff compiles a 3.48 ERA led by Jim Mecir who tossed 5.1 shutout innings and retired 16 of the 17 hitters he faces.

The A's open the series with a 5-3 win in Oakland as Ramon Hernandez has a RBI double in the sixth inning to break a 3-3 tie. Trailing 2-0 after four innings, the A's score three times in the fifth, beginning with a Hernandez RBI single. Gil Heredia allows three runs in six innings for the win. The Yankees come back to win Game 2 as Andy Pettitte and Mariano Rivera combine to shut out the A's on six hits. The series moves to New York for Game 3 and the Yankees win their second straight with a 4-2 victory. Tim Hudson goes the distance for the A's but Orlando Hernandez and Rivera combine to limit the A's to two runs on four hits, including a Terrence Long home run. Facing elimination in Game 4, Barry Zito allows one run in 5 2/3 innings to pick up the victory in the A's 11-1 win. Olmedo Saenz hits a three-run home run in the first inning and Ben Grieve adds a two-run single in the A's three-run sixth. Oakland adds another run in the eighth and four more in the ninth, including a two-run double by Eric Chavez. The series returns to Oakland for Game 5 but the Yankees score six times in the first inning off Gil Heredia for a 7-5 win. The A's score twice in the second, once in the third and two more times in the fourth but are shut out on three hits over the final five innings.

2001 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's face New York in the American League Division Series again and lose to the Yankees in five games for the second straight year. The pitching staff compiles a 2.86 ERA, including 0.93 by Tim Hudson. Johnny Damon leads the A's with a .409 batting average and Terrence Long hits two home runs, both in Game 1.

The A's open the series with a 5-3 win for the second consecutive year as Mark Mulder allows one run on seven hits in 6 2/3 innings for the win. Terrence Long becomes the sixth Athletic to homer twice in a postseason game as he leads off the fourth and eighth innings with home runs. Johnny Damon is 4 for 4 with a walk and steals two bases. Tim Hudson combines with Jason Isringhausen for a 2-0, seven-hit shutout in Game 2. Hudson allows six of the hits in eight innings and Ron Gant homers to start the fourth inning. The series returns to Oakland for Game 3 and Mike Mussina and Mariano Rivera combine to shut out the A's on six hits. Jorge Posada homers with one out in the fifth for the only run and Barry Zito takes the loss, despite allowing one run on two hits and one walk in eight innings. Cory Lidle starts Game 4 and allows two unearned runs in the second, two in the third and two of the Yankees three runs in the fourth in a 9-2 loss. Lidle allows six runs on five hits and three walks in 3 1/3 innings. Miguel Tejada has four hits and Jermaine Dye breaks his leg after fouling off a pitch in the third inning. The series returns to Yankee Stadium for Game 5 and New York completes its comeback with a 5-3 win. RBI singles by Jason and Jeremy Giambi in the first and second innings give the A's a 2-0 lead but New York scores two in the second and unearned runs in the third and fourth off Mulder to take the lead for good. Mulder allows four runs on seven hits in 4 1/3 innings for the loss.

2002 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's reach the postseason for the third consecutive season, facing Minnesota in the ALDS. However, the A's lose in five games for the third straight year. The A's hit .288 in the series, scoring 26 runs in the five games. Scott Hatteberg leads the A's with a .500 batting average and Ray Durham hits two home runs. The A's pitching staff allows 27 runs for a 4.09 ERA.

After winning Game 1 in each of the previous two seasons, the A's drop the opener in 2002, 7-5. The A's take a 5-1 lead after two innings but Tim Hudson allows a run in the third and one of the Twins three runs in the sixth. Ted Lilly allows two runs in two-thirds of an inning for the loss and blown save. The A's win Game 2 9-1 as Eric Chavez hits a three-run home run in the first to give Mark Mulder all the runs he would need. Mulder allows a run on five hits in six innings. The series moves to Minnesota for Game 3 and the A's win 6-3 behind Barry Zito. Ray Durham leads off the game with an inside-the-park home run and Scott Hatteberg follows with a home run to mark the first time in postseason history a team has started a game with back-to-back home runs. The Twins even the series at two with an 11-2 win in Game 4. Miguel Tejada hits a two-run home run in the third inning but Tim Hudson allows two in the bottom of the inning before the Twins score seven unearned runs in the fourth to hand Hudson the loss. Minnesota then wins Game 5, 5-4. The Twins take a 2-0 lead before Ray Durham homers in the bottom of the third. The score remains 2-1 until Billy Koch allows three runs in the ninth. Mark Ellis hits a three-run home run in the bottom of the ninth.

2003 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's reach the postseason for the fourth consecutive season, facing Boston in the ALDS. However, the A's lose in five games for the fourth straight year. The A's hit .213 in the series and outscore the Red Sox 18-17. Eric Byrnes leads the A's with a .462 batting average. The A's pitching staff records a 2.98 ERA and Ted Lilly does not allow a run in 9.0 innings.

The A's win Game 1 in 12 innings as Ramon Hernandez has a bases loaded two-out bunt single in the bottom of the 12th for a 5-4 win. Erubiel Durazo sends the game into extra innings with a two-out RBI single in the bottom of the ninth. Oakland takes a 2-0 lead in the series with a 5-1 win in Game 2. The A's score all five of their runs in the second inning, highlighted by a Hernandez RBI single and an Eric Byrnes two-run double. Barry Zito allows one run on five hits in 7.0 innings and strikes out nine for the win. The series moves to Boston for Game 3 and the Sox win 3-1 in 11 innings on a two-run pinch-hit home run by Trot Nixon. The A's trail 1-0 after five innings before tying the game with a run in the sixth inning, an inning in which Byrnes is tagged out when he fails to touch home and Miguel Tejada is tagged out between third and home when he stops after being obstructed. The A's lose Game 4, 5-4, as starting pitcher Tim Hudson is injured after one inning. The A's lead 4-2 entering the bottom of the sixth but Boston scores a run in the sixth and two more in the eighth off Keith Foulke for the win. Barry Zito has a two-hit shutout after five innings in Game 5 but the Red Sox score four times in the sixth inning off him for a 4-3 win.

2006 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's returned to postseason play for the fifth time in seven years and won a postseason series for the first time since the 1990 ALCS by sweeping Minnesota three games to none in the ALDS. They snap a six-series postseason losing streak and a nine-game losing streak in potential postseason clinching games, which was the longest such streak in Major League history. The A's batted .245 in the series and compiled a 2.33 ERA while outscoring the Twins 16-7. Frank Thomas led the A's with a .500 batting average and two home runs and Marco Scutaro topped the club with six RBI.

The A's win Game 1 in Minnesota, 3-2 as Barry Zito allows just one run on four hits in eight innings for the win. Frank Thomas homers and Marco Scutaro adds a RBI double in the second inning and Zito takes a two-hit shutout into the seventh inning before allowing a home run to Rondell White. Thomas homers again in the ninth inning for an important insurance run as Huston Street allows a run in the bottom of the ninth but gets the save. The A's win Game 2 by a 5-2 score. Oakland scores twice in the fifth inning on a Scutaro RBI double and a Jason Kendall RBI single, but Esteban Loaiza allows back-to-back home runs to Michael Cuddyer and Justin Morneau in the sixth inning. Mark Kotsay then hits a two-run inside-the-park home run in the seventh inning to give the A's the lead for good. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 and the A's complete the sweep with an 8-3 win. Scutaro doubles twice and has four RBI and Milton Bradley and Eric Chavez homer. Dan Haren allows two runs in six innings for the win.

2006 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The A's return to the American League Championship Series for the first time since 1992 and the 11th time overall, but are swept in four games by Detroit. The A's hit .221 in the series and score just nine runs in the four games. Milton Bradley drives in five of those runs and homers twice while batting a team leading .500. The A's pitching staff allows 22 runs for a 5.71 ERA.

The A's lose Game 1 in Oakland by a score of 5-1. Barry Zito takes the loss, allowing five runs on seven hits in 3 2/3 innings, but the A's bullpen blanks the Tigers the rest of the way. The A's are limited to a run on eight hits by four Detroit pitchers. Milton Bradley homers from both sides of the plate and is 4-for-5 with four RBI in Game 2 but the A's lose, 8-5. Esteban Loaiza allows seven runs on nine hits in six innings for the loss. The series moves to Detroit for Game 3 and Kenny Rogers and the Tigers bullpen shut out the A's on two hits, 3-0. Jason Kendall singles to start the game and Marco Scutaro has a one-out single in the fifth for the A's only hits. Rich Harden takes the loss, allowing three runs on five hits and five walks in 5 2/3 innings. The Tigers complete the sweep in Game 4 with a 6-3 win. Milton Bradley and Eric Chavez have RBI doubles in the first inning to give the A's a 2-0 lead and Jay Payton adds a solo home run in the fourth inning to make the score 3-0. Dan Haren shuts out Detroit on two hits over the first four innings before allowing two runs in the fifth and one in the sixth. The game remains tied at three entering the bottom of the ninth when Huston Street allows a two-out three-run home run to Magglio Ordonez for the loss.

2012 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's lose to the Detroit Tigers three games to two in their first postseason appearance in six years. It was the A's sixth ALDS appearance in the last 13 years and their fifth loss, with all the losses going the full five games. The A's pitching staff compiled a 2.89 ERA and walked just seven batters in the five-game series, but the offense hit just .194 and scored 11 runs in the five games. Yoenis Céspedes hit safely in all five games and paced the A's offense with a .316 batting average.

The A's lose Game 1 in Detroit, 3-1. Coco Crisp leads off the game with a home run but that is the only run Justin Verlander would allow in seven innings. Jarrod Parker allows a run in the first on a double play, an unearned run in the third and an Alex Avila home run in the fifth. The A's fall behind two games to zero with a 5-4 loss in Game 2. Cliff Pennington breaks a 1-1 tie with a RBI single in the seventh but Sean Doolittle allows two unearned runs in the bottom of the seventh to put Detroit ahead 3-2. The A's then score twice in the eighth when Céspedes scores on a wild pitch and Josh Reddick homers, but the Tigers tie the game in the eighth and win it on a Don Kelly sacrifice fly off Grant Balfour in the ninth. The series moves to Oakland for Game 3 where Brett Anderson combines with three A's relievers on a four-hit, 2-0 shutout. Céspedes has a RBI single in the first and Seth Smith homers in the fifth. In Game 4, the A's trail 3-1 entering the bottom of the ninth before scoring three times to send the series to a fifth game. Smith ties the game with a two-run double and scores two outs later on a Crisp RBI single. The A's then lose Game 5 in Oakland 6-0 as Verlander tosses a four-hit shutout. Parker makes his second start of the series and loses for the second time, allowing four runs on seven hits in 6.1 innings.

2013 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's face Detroit in the ALDS for the second consecutive year and lose three games to two for the second consecutive year. Oakland won two of the first three games but then lost two straight to fall to 1-12 in potential clinch games since 2000, including 0-6 in Game 5's. The A's pitching staff compiled a 3.48 ERA and held the Tigers to a .235 batting average, but the offense hit just .217 and struck out 57 times in the five games. Yoenis Céspedes hit safely in all five games and Coco Crisp batted .389.

The A's lose Game 1 in Oakland, 3-2. Bartolo Colón allows three runs in the first inning but those were the only runs he would allow in six innings of work. Max Scherzer blanks the A's on one hit over the first six innings before Céspedes hits a two-run home run in the seventh for the A's only runs of the game. Oakland evens the series at 1-1 when Sonny Gray and Grant Balfour combine on a four-hit, 1-0 shutout in Game 2. Gray tosses eight innings and allows all four of the hits. Justin Verlander tosses seven shutout innings for the Tigers before Stephen Vogt wins the game with a walk-off RBI single off Rick Porcello in the bottom of the ninth. The series moves to Detroit for Game 3, which the A's win, 6-3. Jarrod Parker has a 3-0 lead when he allows three runs in the bottom of the fourth, but the A's take the lead for good when Brandon Moss homers with one out in the fifth. Josh Reddick and Seth Smith also homer in the game. The A's lose Game 4 by an 8-6 margin. Dan Straily had a 3-0 lead before allowing a three-run home run to Jhonny Peralta in the bottom of the fifth. Coco Crisp delivered a RBI single in the seventh to give the A's a 4-3 lead but Sean Doolittle allowed two runs in the bottom of the inning for the blown save. The A's load the bases with no outs in the eighth but are unable to score and the Tigers score three times in the bottom of the eighth to put the game away. The series concludes in Oakland when Verlander and Joaquin Benoit combine on a three-hit shutout in a 3-0 A's loss. Sonny Gray makes his second start of the series and allows three runs in five innings for the loss.

2014 AMERICAN LEAGUE WILD CARD

The A's travel to Kansas City in their first appearance in the American League Wild Card one-game playoff and lose to the Royals in 12 innings by a score of 9-8. Brandon Moss hits a two-run home run in the first inning and a three-run home run in the A's five-run sixth inning to set an Athletics postseason record with five RBI. The A's take a 7-3 lead into the eighth inning, but the Royals score three times off Jon Lester to pull to within one. Sean Doolittle allows a run in the ninth for the blown save but Alberto Callaspo has a pinch hit RBI single in the 12th to give the A's the lead. The bullpen then allows two runs in the bottom of the 12th, capped by a two-out RBI single by Salvador Pérez. The Royals steal seven bases, including six over the final four innings.

2018 AMERICAN LEAGUE WILD CARD

The A's face New York in the American League Wild Card game and lose at Yankee Stadium by a score of 7-2. Liam Hendriks is the A's "opener" and allows a two-run home run to Aaron Judge in the bottom of the first inning for the loss. Lou Trivino comes on to pitch the second inning and tosses 3.0 scoreless innings, allowing just one hit and walking one. Shawn Kelley pitches a scoreless fifth to keep the A's close but New York scores four times in the sixth inning off Fernando Rodney and Blake Treinen to put the game away. Khris Davis hits a two-run home run in the eighth to account for the A's scoring. Oakland is held to five hits by five Yankees pitchers, but also draws five walks and leaves nine runners on base.

2019 AMERICAN LEAGUE WILD CARD

The A's host Tampa Bay in the American League Wild Card game and lose by a score of 5-1. Sean Manaea starts for the A's and allows a home run to Yandy Díaz to start the game. He also surrenders a two-run home run to Avisaíl García in the second inning and a solo home run to Díaz in the third and is relieved by Yusmeiro Petit with no outs in the third inning and the A's trailing 4-0. Oakland scores its lone run in the bottom of the third when Marcus Semien reaches third on an error by third baseman Mike Brosseau and scores on a Ramón Laureano sacrifice fly. Jesús Luzardo pitches 3.0 scoreless innings of relief to keep the A's close but the Rays bullpen blanks the A's on three hits over the final four innings. Jurickson Profar and Robbie Grossman have two hits each but Oakland does not get a runner into scoring position after the fourth inning.

2020 AMERICAN LEAGUE WILD CARD SERIES

The A's returned to the postseason for the third consecutive year and defeated the Chicago White Sox two games to one in the best-of-three American League Wild Card series. The series win was the A's first in the postseason since sweeping Minnesota in the 2006 ALDS. Oakland hit just .194 in the series but out-scored the White Sox 12-11 while compiling a 3.67 ERA. Rookie catcher Sean Murphy went 3-for-8 with a home run and two RBI and Jake Diekman pitched in all three games without allowing a run.

Chicago starter Lucas Giolito retired each of the first 18 Oakland batters in Game 1 en route to a 4-1 win, which extended the A's postseason losing streak to an Athletics record-tying six games. Jesús Luzardo started for Oakland and took the loss, allowing three runs on six hits in 3.1 innings. The A's evened the series with a 5-3 victory in Game 2 after Chris Bassitt allowed just one run in seven innings of work for the win. Oakland scored two unearned runs in the first inning and increased their lead to 4-0 when Marcus Semien hit a two-run home run in the second. Closer Liam Hendriks came in with no outs in the eighth and allowed two runs in 1.2 innings before Diekman recorded the final out with the bases loaded in the ninth. The A's then snapped their Major League record nine-game losing streak in winner-take-all postseason games with a 6-4 victory in Game 3. Oakland trailed 3-0 after three innings but then scored four times in the fourth on a two-run home run by Murphy and back-to-back bases loaded walks by Mark Canha and Matt Olson. Chad Pinder added a two-run single in the fifth, Frankie Montas allowed a run in 2.0 innings of relief for the win, and Hendriks struck out the final three batters for the save.

2020 AMERICAN LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

The A's faced division rival Houston in their first neutral-site postseason series at Dodger Stadium, but lost the American League Division Series three games to one. Each team hit 12 home runs in the four-game series as the A's set franchise record for home runs hit and home runs allowed in a postseason series. The pitching staff compiled a 7.46 ERA, which was the A's highest in a postseason series of more than one game. Marcus Semien hit .533 and had a .611 on-base percentage, which set an Athletics record for highest on-base percentage in a single postseason series.

The A's took a 3-0 lead in Game 1 on a two-run home run by Khris Davis in the second inning and a solo home run by Sean Murphy in the third but would go on to lose 10-5. Oakland starter Chris Bassitt allowed three runs in the fourth and J.B. Wendelken was charged with the blown save and loss when he surrendered four unearned runs in the fifth. The A's again scored first in Game 2 on a solo home run by Davis but Sean Manaea allowed four runs in 4.1 innings in the A's 5-2 loss. Oakland's lone win came in Game 3 when they tied an Athletics postseason record with five home runs en route to a 9-7 win. The A's took a 4-2 lead into the bottom of the fifth but the Astros scored five times, including twice off Oakland starter Jesús Luzardo. Chad Pinder then hit a three-run home run in the seventh inning and added a sacrifice fly in the eighth, and Liam Hendriks closed out the game with three scoreless innings of relief for the win. For the fourth time in the series, the A's scored first in Game 4 but would go on to lose, 11-6. Ramón Laureano hit a three-run home run in the second and added a solo shot in the fifth, but Houston scored five times in the fourth off Oakland starter Frankie Montas, and twice each in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings.

MINOR LEAGUE FIELD STAFF

TODD TAKAYOSHI

Minor League Hitting Coordinator

Todd Takayoshi enters his first year as the A's minor league hitting coordinator after serving as the assistant hitting coordinator over the previous two seasons (2024-25). He joined the A's organization as hitting coach at Double-A Midland in 2022 and was assistant hitting coach with Triple-A Las Vegas in 2023. Takayoshi previously worked as a hitting coach in the Cincinnati Reds organization from 2016-21. Prior to that, he was assistant minor league hitting coordinator with the Los Angeles Dodgers from 2013-15. From 2002-12, Takayoshi served as a minor league hitting coach, catching coordinator, hitting coordinator and field coordinator with the Angels organization.

After attending the University of Hawaii at Manoa, Takayoshi played in the Angels organization from 1993-96 and for the Western League Reno Chukars from 1997-98.

He resides in Tacoma, Wash., with his wife, Saori, daughters, Taegan and Taryn, and son, Tommy.

JIM EPPARD

Minor League Assistant Hitting Coordinator

Originally drafted by the A's in the 13th round of the 1982 draft out of Cal, Jim Eppard rejoined the A's in 2016 as the organization's minor league hitting coordinator and served in that role through the 2025 season. This year in 2026, Eppard will serve as the minor league assistant hitting coordinator. Prior to 2016, he spent two seasons as assistant hitting coordinator for Los Angeles (AL) after serving as the club's hitting coach from May 15, 2012, through the end of the 2013 season.

Before coaching the big league squad, he served as hitting coach at Triple-A Salt Lake for nine-plus seasons from 2003-12. Prior to joining the Angels organization, he spent nine seasons in the Rockies minor league system as hitting coach for Single-A Central Valley (1994) and Triple-A Colorado Springs (2000-02) and as manager at three different Rockies affiliates from 1995-99. In 1997, Eppard led the Short-Season Portland Rockies to a Northwest League Championship and was named Northwest League Manager of the Year.

As a player, he spent 12 years in pro baseball, including four as a Major Leaguer with the Angels and Blue Jays. He hit .281 in 82 career Major League games and is a lifetime .310 hitter in 1,199 minor league games, winning four minor league batting titles in four different leagues.

Jim lives in Rapid City, S.D., with his wife Lou Ann. They have a daughter, Hannah, who works as a hydrogeologist in Tucson, Ariz.

JUAN NAVARRETE

Minor League Infield Coordinator

Juan Navarrete is in his 32nd season in the A's organization, his seventh season as minor league infield coordinator. He previously spent three seasons (2017-19) as the minor league defensive coordinator; two seasons (2015-16) as the minor league defensive, baserunning and bunting coordinator; 11 seasons as minor league roving infield instructor (2004-14); and two years as minor league roving hitting instructor (2002-03). Navarrete spent the previous seven seasons as a minor league manager and compiled a 390-338 (.536) record during that span. In his first two seasons as a manager for the A's Arizona Rookie League team (1995-97), he earned manager and co-manager of the year honors after guiding the team to first- and second-place finishes, respectively. Navarrete was promoted to Single-A Modesto in 1998 and took over the managerial duties at Single-A Visalia in 1999, where he guided the Oaks to playoff appearances in two of his three seasons.

A former infielder, Navarrete's playing career spanned 21 years (1970-90). He spent the majority of his career with the Saltillo Saraperos of the Mexican League as a player (1970-71; 78-82) and as a player-manager (1983-85). Navarrete was an eight-time All-Star and a member of Saltillo's 1980 championship squad. He also played six seasons in the Montreal organization (1972-77). Navarrete spent his winters in the Mexican-Pacific Winter League (1972-90) and is among the all-time leaders in various statistical categories. In 1998, Navarrete was inducted into the Mexican Baseball Hall of Fame.

Navarrete makes his home in San Tan Valley, Ariz., with his wife, Maria, and two daughters, Airam and Ana, and son, Juan Pablo.

LLOYD TURNER

Hitting Development Coach

Lloyd Turner enters his 14th season coaching in the A's organization and his fourth as hitting development coach. He began his coaching career as a hitting coach at Vermont (2013, 2016-18) and Beloit (2014-15), and spent the 2019 season as manager for Beloit. Turner was ACL hitting coach in 2021 and hitting technology coach in 2022.

Selected by the A's in the 16th round of the June 2002 draft, Turner spent six years in the Oakland farm system. He concluded his playing career with Lancaster (2008-10) and Camden (2011-12) of the independent Atlantic League.

Turner and his wife, Tara, live in Mesa, Ariz. He has two sons, Chandler and Christian, and a daughter, Cardyn.

BARRY ENRIGHT

Minor League Pitching Coordinator

Barry Enright joins the A's after spending the last two seasons as the Angels pitching coach. Prior to his time with the Angels, Enright spent 2022-23 as the Diamondbacks assistant Major League pitching coach/minor league pitching coordinator. Before joining Arizona's big league staff, he served as a pitching coach for three seasons (2019-21) in Arizona's minor league system: 2021 with Low-A Visalia, 2020 with Single-A Kane County (no minor league season) and 2019 with Single-A Hillsboro. The 2019 Hillsboro Hops captured the Northwest League Championship after the Club led the league with a 2.87 ERA and a 1.181 WHIP. Enright spent the 2020 campaign as a coach at Arizona's Alternate Training Site.

As a player, Enright appeared in 31 Major League games over parts of four big league seasons with the Diamondbacks (2010-11) and Angels (2012-13). He logged a 7-13 career mark with a 5.57 ERA (148.2 ip/ 92 er). He made his MLB debut on June 30, 2010 at St. Louis. He would go on to make 17 starts during his rookie campaign, going 6-7 with a 3.91 ERA (99 ip/43 er). He also appeared in the Mexican League, Mexican Pacific Winter League and Venezuelan Winter League from 2014-18.

A Stockton, Calif. native, Enright played collegiately at Pepperdine University, where he ranked second in Waves' history and was tied for fourth in West Coast Conference history with a 35-8 career record. Enright earned third team All-America honors after his junior year by Collegiate Baseball as well as earning Freshman All-America and WCC Freshman of Year honors in 2005. He was inducted into the Stockton Athletic Hall of Fame in 2019, and was named First-Team All-State in baseball and football as a senior at St. Mary's High School, including throwing for 2,572 yards and 27 touchdowns. Enright was originally drafted by Arizona in the second round of the 2007 June Amateur Player Draft.

CRAIG LEFFERTS

Minor League Assistant Pitching Coordinator

Former Major League pitcher Craig Lefferts enters his 24th season in the A's organization, his fourth as minor league assistant pitching coordinator after spending eight seasons (2015-22) as minor league pitching rehab coordinator. Prior to that, he spent 12 seasons as a pitching coach in Oakland's minor league system with Double-A Midland (2003), Short-Season Vancouver (2004-2010), Single-A Stockton (2011-12), Short-Season Vermont (2013) and Low-A Beloit (2014). Additionally, Lefferts served in the same capacity at Tennessee (2000-02) and Medicine Hat (1999) in the Toronto Blue Jays system.

In his 12-year Major League career, Lefferts compiled a 58-72 record with a 3.43 ERA, which included stints with the Cubs, Padres, Giants, Orioles, Rangers and Angels. A ninth-round selection by the Cubs in 1980, Lefferts made his Major League debut with Chicago in 1983. In 1984, Lefferts posted a career-best 2.13 ERA for the National League West Division champion Padres and tossed 10 scoreless innings in six postseason appearances. He was the winning pitcher in the final two NLCS games against Chicago and earned the save in the Padres only World Series victory against Detroit.

In 1987, Lefferts made 44 appearances for San Francisco, including three scoreless outings in the NLCS against St. Louis. In 1989, he matched Gary Lavelle's team record for saves by a left-handed pitcher with 20 and appeared in five postseason games, making two appearances in the NLCS against Chicago and three against the A's in the World Series. After recording 23 saves in 1991, he was converted to a starter in 1992 and finished 13-9 with a 3.69 ERA in 27 starts for the Padres. Lefferts retired after making 30 appearances for the California Angels during the 1994 season.

Lefferts and his wife, Wendy, reside in Scottsdale, Ariz. They have five children, Brock, Brady, Taylor, Tanner and Lindsay, and six grandchildren, Rowan, Paxton, Jasper, Brooks, Oakley and Decker.

BRONSWELL PATRICK

Assistant Pitching Coordinator

Bronswell Patrick is in his first season as assistant pitching coordinator after spending the 2025 season as pitching development coordinator. He has also served as a pitching coach for Triple-A Las Vegas (2024) and with the ACL A's (2023).

Originally drafted by the A's out of high school in the 23rd round of the 1988 First-Year Player Draft, Patrick played for 18 professional seasons and coached for 14 years in affiliated and international baseball before taking on this role with the Athletics. Most recently, he served as pitching coach for the Acereros de Monclova of the Mexican League in 2022.

Patrick made his Major League debut on May 18, 1998, with Milwaukee, appearing in 32 games and compiling a 4.69 ERA. He also pitched six games with San Francisco in 1999. Following his career in affiliated ball, he played internationally in the Mexican League (2001, 03, 05), Korean Baseball Organization (2002), Chinese Professional Baseball League (2005) and Mexican Pacific Winter League (2006-07).

Patrick was born in Greenville, N.C., and currently lives in Gilbert, Ariz., with his wife, Marcee. He has three children, Tavian, Jayden and Kilian. Kilian currently plays professional soccer in Mexico.

BRYAN COREY

Minor League Pitching Rehab Coordinator

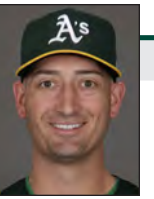

Bryan Corey returns as minor league assistant pitching rehab coordinator for the second consecutive season. He spent 2023-24 as pitching coach with Las Vegas and was pitching coach for the Arizona A's from 2019-20. Additionally, Corey was pitching coach with Single-A Stockton in 2018 and 2022. Before that, he spent two seasons as pitching coach at Short-Season Vermont (2017) and Single-A Stockton (2018). He also served as a Four Corners scout for Milwaukee (2015-16) and a Major League Advance scout for Cleveland (2013-14).

Originally drafted as a shortstop by Detroit in the 12th round of the 1993 draft, Corey was converted to a pitcher after two pro seasons. He spent the next 18 seasons on the mound, including five years in the majors with Arizona, Los Angeles (NL), Texas, Boston and San Diego, winning a World Series with the Red Sox in 2007.

He also played two seasons in Japan (2004, 2010), winning the Japan Series with Chiba Lotte during his second stint. Additionally, he pitched in both Korea and Taiwan before retiring after the 2012 season.

A native of Thousand Oaks, Calif., Corey resides in Phoenix, Ariz., and has two daughters, Brooke and Blair.

JOE WIELAND

Minor League Pitching Rehab Coordinator

Joe Wieland joins the A's minor league field staff for the first time in 2026 as minor league pitching rehab coordinator. A former fourth round pick by the Texas Rangers in 2008, Wieland spent time with the Rangers, Padres, Dodgers and Mariners organizations before playing for the Yokohama DeNa BayStars in Japan (2017-18) and the Kia Tigers in Korea (2019). He returned to MLB in 2020 with the Chicago Cubs and spent the 2022 season in the Tampa Bay Rays organization and later the A's organization in 2023. Most recently, Wieland played for the Uni-President Lions' farm team in Taiwan before electing to retire following the 2025 season.

GABRIEL ORTIZ

Minor League Catching Coordinator

Gabriel Ortiz enters his seventh season as minor league catching coordinator and his 20th with the A's organization, which includes five years as a player.

He joined the organization at 20 years old and spent five seasons as a catcher in the A's system. He reached as high as Double-A Midland and was a career .238 hitter with eight homers in 146 games.

Ortiz resides in Gilbert, Ariz., with his wife, Gerri, and children, Gabriel Jr., Gavin and Genevieve.

KEVIN KUNTZ

Minor League Outfield Coordinator

Kevin Kuntz joins the A's organization as minor league outfield coordinator. He spent the last 13 seasons with the Royals. He spent 2023-25 on the coaching staff for the Northwest Arkansas Naturals as a Coach after spending 2022 in Quad Cities and 2021 with Surprise. This followed a five-year stint in the Royals front office, serving as a baseball operations coordinator from 2019-20, a baseball operations assistant from 2017-18 and as an Intern in 2016. He also served as a coach at Burlington in 2015. Prior to that, Kuntz played two seasons (2013-14) in the Royals organization, with Burlington and Low-A Lexington. He was selected by the Royals in the 28th round of the 2013 First-Year Player Draft after playing four years at the University of Kansas. While at KU, he was a two-time team Gold Glove Award winner and set an NCAA record which still holds to this day in sacrifices per game (0.64) in 2013. He graduated from KU with a bachelor's degree in applied behavioral science.

Kevin and his wife, Andrea, reside in Lehi, Utah, with their daughter Alessandra.

TIM ESMAY

Minor League Quality Control and Field Coordinator

Tim Esmay begins a new role as quality control and field coordinator. He served as manager for the Arizona A's for the last two seasons and spent the 2023 season as a hitting coach for the team. Prior to that, he served as a coach in the White Sox organization from 2015-19, including three seasons as manager of Great Falls (2017-19) and one season as manager at Winston Salem (2015). Esmay led Great Falls to a Pioneer League North Division Championship in 2017 & 2018, including a Pioneer League Championship in 2018, when he also won Manager of the Year.

A graduate of Arizona State University, Esmay served three stints (1988-90, 1994, 2005-09) as a coach with the Sun Devils and was named head coach in 2010, a position he held until 2014. During his tenure at ASU, the team secured six College World Series berths. Esmay also served as head coach at the University of Utah from 1997-2004. He was named Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 1997 and Pac-12 Coach of the Year in 2010.

A'S IN LAS VEGAS

The A's are scheduled to play six games in Southern Nevada this year, hosting the Milwaukee Brewers from June 8-10 and the Pittsburgh Pirates from June 12-14 at Las Vegas Ballpark. This will not be the first time the A's have played a regular season game in Las Vegas as the club opened the 1996 season at Cashman Field when the Coliseum was not ready due to renovations for the return of the Raiders. The A's went 2-4 in six games, losing a pair of games to the Toronto Blue Jays on April 1 and 3, and splitting a four-game series with the Detroit Tigers from April 4-7.

MISCELLANEOUS

The A's formally broke ground on their new ballpark in Las Vegas on June 23, 2025.

A'S NEW BALLPARK IN LAS VEGAS

Artist rendering of the A's new ballpark in Las Vegas.

On March 5, 2024, the Athletics, Bjarke Ingles Group (BIG) and HNTB unveiled the design for the A's new ballpark project in Las Vegas on the Tropicana site. Shaped by its location on the Las Vegas Strip, the 33,000-person capacity ballpark provides an outdoor feel with views of the city's skyline.

The roof is accentuated by five overlapping shells resembling baseball pennants, paying homage to the sport. These arched "pennants" will attenuate direct sunlight glare while welcoming indirect natural light through northern oriented clerestory windows. The exterior metal cladding shimmers in the natural daylight and reflects the surrounding Las Vegas lights at night, echoing the vibrancy of the 'Entertainment Capital of the World.' The fixed roof ballpark is designed to feature a sweeping cable-net glass wall that frames a stunning view of The Strip, drawing its energy right into the venue.

An elevated outdoor plaza connects to the bridges over Las Vegas and Tropicana Boulevards, directing fans to the ballpark's main concourse – uniquely positioned beyond the outfield rather than behind home plate. This entrance sequence immediately orients fans in the ballpark, allowing views of the entire park upon entry while optimizing wayfinding and circulation.

Construction progess of the A's ballpark in Las Vegas as of January 28, 2026. For the latest images, visit ballparkexperience.athletics.com/construction.

Its tiered design, inspired by historic ballparks like Fenway Park and Wrigley Field, incorporates a split upper and lower bowl, bringing fans closer to the action than traditional ballparks and providing clear sightlines from every seat. The ballpark features the closest seats to home plate and one of the smallest foul territory of any MLB ballpark. Eighty percent of the seats are located between the foul poles. The ballpark will include multiple suite and club seat experiences, premium group seating options and spaces focused on family, experience and affordability. An air-conditioning system distributes at the seats rather than from above, making cooling more efficient and energy conscious.

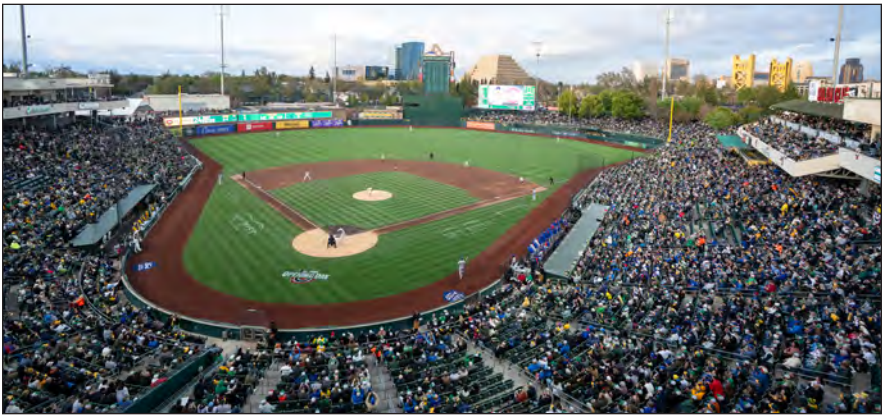

Secondary north and south entrances are marked by "bouncing" arches to increase visitor accessibility and promote a connection to the outdoors. Once inside, fans are met with bright, open atria, which will also serve as multipurpose exhibition spaces to showcase international and local artists. The ballpark will function as a true multipurpose venue, able to host concerts, conferences, and other events.

BIG is serving as lead designer, and HNTB is serving as the sports/hospitality designer and architect of record. CAA ICON is serving as the Owner's Representative, and Mortenson McCarthy has been selected as the General Contractor.

The A's held a groundbreaking ceremony for their new ballpark in Las Vegas on June 23, 2025

SUTTER HEALTH PARK

On April 4, 2024, the Athletics and the Sacramento Kings, majority owner of the Sacramento River Cats, announced that Sutter Health Park will host the A's for the 2025-27 seasons, ahead of the team's move to Las Vegas in 2028.

The ballpark underwent significant renovations ahead of the A's inaugural season, including the construction of the A's new home clubhouse. The two-story facility, located beyond the left field wall, features all the amenities of a typical Major League clubhouse, including a dressing room, training facility, full gym, manager and coaches' offices, kitchen, dining room, and dual batting cages. Renovations were made to the dugouts, and new bullpens were constructed, in addition to improvements to the grass playing surface. A new scoreboard, lights, batter's eye, and LED boards were also added, along with several renovated Club spaces and broadcasting locations.

Construction originally began on Oct. 28, 1999, at a cost of $46.5 million and the ballpark opened on May 15, 2000, when the Sacramento River Cats hosted the Edmonton Trappers at what was then known as Raleys Field.

The state-of-the-art ballpark in West Sacramento was built to house the River Cats and numerous concerts and events as the premier entertainment venue in the Sacramento region. Originally the ballpark was built with a capacity of 14,611, but in 2005 the capacity changed to 14,414 with the addition of the party deck, and in 2010 it was modified to 14,014 following the opening of the new 4Topps area behind home plate. The stadium was renamed Sutter Health Park before the start of the 2020 season. Capacity for A's games in 2025 will be 13,416.

ATHLETICS PREVIOUS HOME BALLPARKS

Oakland/Alameda County Coliseum (1968-2024)
7000 Coliseum Way, Oakland, CA

The Oakland/Alameda County Coliseum served as the A's home for all 57 seasons in Oakland. The first crowd filled the Coliseum on Sept. 8, 1966, when the AFL's Oakland Raiders played the Kansas City Chiefs. The adjacent arena celebrated its grand opening on Nov. 9, 1966, when the Oakland Seals met the San Diego Gulls in hockey. The first A's game came on April 17, 1968, a 4-1 loss to the Baltimore Orioles. Two of the A's four World Championships in Oakland were clinched on the Coliseum's turf and the ballpark hosted the 1987 All-Star Game. The Coliseum underwent a one-year, $120 million renovation project following the 1995 season that added 22,000 new seats, 90 luxury suites, two private clubs and two state-of-the-art scoreboards. As part of the team's new 10-year lease arrangement prior to the 2015 season, an additional $10 million in improvements was added.

Municipal Stadium (1955-67)
22nd Street and Brooklyn Avenue, Kansas City, MO

Municipal Stadium was home for the A's for all 13 of their seasons in Kansas City. The stadium originally opened in 1923 as Muehlebach Field, named after the owner of the original tenant, the minor league Kansas City Blues. It also served as home for the Negro League Kansas City Monarchs. The stadium was almost completely rebuilt prior to the A's arrival in 1955 and also served as home for the Kansas City Chiefs football team (1963-71), Kansas City Spurs soccer team (1968-69) and, following the A's move to Oakland, the Kansas City Royals (1969-72). The A's first game was a 6-2 win over Detroit on April 12, 1955 with Philadelphia A's legends Connie Mack and Jimmie Foxx in attendance. The final home run in the ballpark was hit by the Oakland A's Gene Tenace against the Kansas City Royals on Sept. 30, 1972.

CASHMAN FIELD

The A's began the 1996 season at Cashman Field in Las Vegas as the Coliseum was not ready following offseason renovations for the return of the Raiders. Oakland played six games in Las Vegas, dropping two games to Toronto and splitting a four-game series with Detroit.

The first game was on April 1, a 9-6 loss to the Blue Jays in front of a crowd of 7,294. Las Vegas Mayor Jan Jones threw out the ceremonial first pitch. Carlos Reyes started for the A's against Erik Hanson. Reyes took the loss and allowed the first run on a one-out solo home run to Domingo Cedeño in the first inning. The A's first hit came on a two-run home run by Terry Steinbach in the bottom of the second off Erik Hanson.

The final game was on April 7, a 7-6 A's win over the Tigers with 9,723 in attendance. The A's won the game on a one-out two-run walk-off home run by Geronimo Berroa in the bottom of the ninth. Jim Corsi picked up the win in relief. Ariel Prieto started for the A's against Detroit's Clint Sodowsky.

Shibe Park/Connie Mack Stadium (1909-54)
Lehigh Avenue and 21st Street, Philadelphia, PA

In 1908, A's owner Benjamin Shibe began construction on a new ballpark for the Philadelphia A's. Originally named Shibe Park after the A's owner, the park would later be renamed Connie Mack Stadium prior to the 1953 season after the A's long-time manager and co-owner. The A's played their first game in Shibe Park on April 12, 1909, an 8-1 win over Boston in front of 30,162 fans. The franchise clinched three of its five World Series Championships at Shibe Park: 1911, 29 and 30. The Phillies moved into the park in the middle of the 1938 season and lights were installed a year later. The A's played the first night game in American League history on May 16, 1939, an 8-3 loss to Cleveland. Arnold Johnson bought the A's after the 1954 season and moved the club to Kansas City in 1955. The Phillies called Connie Mack Stadium home through the 1970 season. A fire a year later damaged the park and it was later demolished, with the famous corner tower and its domed cupola the last to go on July 13, 1976.

Columbia Park (1901-08)
29th and Columbia Street, Philadelphia, PA

Columbia Park was the first home of the Philadelphia Athletics, built by the club in 1901 when the A's were one of the eight original franchises in the American League. The park originally had a capacity of 9,500, which was later increased to 13,600 with the addition of bleacher seating in the outfield. The first game was an exhibition game on April 8, 1901 and the official opening came on April 26, 1901 when the A's lost to the Washington Senators 5-1 in front of a crowd of 10,524. The final game came on Oct. 3, 1908 when the A's lost to Boston 5-0 in the second game of a doubleheader. The park was also home for the Philadelphia Phillies for two months in 1903, the Philadephia Athletics football cub and the Philadelphia Giants Negro League team. It was demolished after the A's moved to Shibe Park for new homes.

TOKYO DOME

Major League Baseball has opened the season in the Tokyo Dome in Japan six seasons (2000, 04, 08, 12, 19, 25) for a total of 12 games. The A's have played in six of those games, all as the home team. Oakland played Boston in 2008 and Seattle in both 2012 and 2019.

The first Major League game in the Tokyo Dome was on March 29, 2000, a 5-3 Cubs win over the Mets. The A's played their first game on March 25, 2008 against Boston, a 6-5 loss in 11 innings. Joe Blanton started for Oakland and Daisuke Matsuzaka took the mound for Boston in front of a crowd of 44,628. Mark Ellis had the A's first hit, a one-out home run in the bottom of the first. Rich Harden got the A's first win the next night against the Red Sox, a 5-1 victory.

The last Major League game in the Tokyo Dome was on March 21, 2019, a 5-4 A's loss to the Mariners in 12 innings. Marco Estrada (OAK) and Yusei Kikuchi (SEA) were the starters, but Ryan Buchter took the loss when Fernando Rodney yielded a RBI ground out to Domingo Santana, allowing an inherited runner to score. The A's last home run was hit by Matt Chapman in the seventh inning a day earlier.

ATHLETICS ON THE AIR

KEN KORACH

Radio Play-by-Play

The 2026 season marks Ken Korach's 35th year in the American League, his 31st with the A's and his 21st as the team's lead radio announcer.

Korach's first MLB job was in Chicago, where he spent four years broadcasting mostly weekend games for the White Sox. He also spent six full seasons in the minor leagues, beginning in 1984 with the Redwood Pioneers of the California League. He also worked in the Pacific Coast League in Phoenix (1986-87) and Las Vegas (1989-91). Korach was also named the 2024 National Sports Media Association's California Sportscaster of the Year.

Korach was selected as a 2023 finalist for the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the National Baseball Hall of Fame for excellence in broadcasting. Korach was hired in 1985 to broadcast San Jose State football on KCBS Radio and he spent 22 years doing football and basketball on radio and television for Sonoma State, San Jose State and UNLV. He is the author of Holy Toledo, Lessons from Bill King, Renaissance Man of the Mic, which was published by Wellstone Books in 2013, spent over a month as the number one best-selling baseball book on Amazon.com, and is Ken's homage to the 2017 Ford C. Frick Award recipient. Ken's second book, If These Walls Could Talk: Oakland A's, co-written by then-San Francisco Chronicle A's beat writer Susan Slusser, was released in the spring of 2019 by Triumph Books.

Korach was inducted into the Bay Area Radio Hall of Fame in September of 2019 and honored as the 2013 California Sportscaster of the Year and the 2001 Nevada Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sports Media Association. He was inducted in 2017 into the Jewish Sports Hall of Fame of Northern California and in 2003 into the Nevada Broadcasters Hall of Fame.

In partnership with the A's community Fund, Korach has made joint contributions over several years to support the Oakland Athletic League's mission to grow diamond sports with elementary and middle school OUSD students.

Korach is a graduate of UC Santa Barbara and he and his wife Denise are parents of their daughter, Emilee. They make their home in Henderson, Nev.

JOHNNY DOSKOW

Radio Play-by-Play

Johnny Doskow begins his fourth season in the A's radio booth in 2026, where he will broadcast games as well as contribute to pregame, postgame, and A's Cast Live. In 2023, Doskow added play-by-play duties for 65+ games on NBC Sports California.

Doskow was the voice of the Sacramento River Cats from 2001-22, where he was behind the microphone for three Triple-A Championships and five Pacific Coast League Championships. In February of 2025, Doskow was inducted into the Sacramento Area Baseball Hall of Fame. Six months later in August 2025, he was inducted into the Cedar Rapids Kernels Hall of Fame. Before joining Sacramento, Doskow was the radio broadcaster for the Fresno Grizzlies (1998-2000), High Desert Mavericks (1996-1998), and Cedar Rapids Kernels (1993-1995).

Johnny made his MLB debut in 2012, joining the A's radio booth for a brief stint while Ken Korach was recovering from surgery.

In 2020, Doskow published his book, Goodnight Em: Baseball and Life Through Haiku.

He graduated from the University of La Verne with a bachelor's degree in Communications, Radio and Television. A native of North Tarrytown, NY, Doskow has a daughter, Emily, and he resides in Sacramento, Calif.

JENNY CAVNAR

Television Play-by-Play

Jenny Cavnar begins her third season as a play-by-play announcer for the Athletics on NBC Sports California in 2026. In 2024, she became the first female primary play-by-play voice in Major League history. This will be her 20th season covering Major League Baseball.

During her time with the Colorado Rockies (2012-2023), the five-time Emmy® Award winner also became the first woman to win National Sports Media Association (NSMA) Colorado Sportscaster of the Year in 2021. She also made baseball history in 2018 as the first woman to call play-by-play for a Major League Baseball game in 25 years and in 2015, as the first female to provide analysis for a series of National League games in the radio booth.

Cavnar can often be heard as a voice on MLB Network Radio on SiriusXM throughout the regular season and postseason coverage.

Cavnar graduated from Colorado State University and now serves CSU as the President's Executive in Residence. She resides in Denver with her husband Steve Spurgeon (from Stockton, Calif.) and two children, Vincent (8) and Emmery (5).

CHRIS CARAY

Television and Radio Play-by-Play

Chris Caray enters his third season as a play-by-play announcer for the Athletics on NBC Sports California in 2026. Chris joined the Athletics in 2024 after two years in Minor League Baseball. He previously was the play-by-play voice of the Amarillo Sod Poodles (Double-A, Arizona Diamondbacks) and the Arizona Fall League (2023).

Before that, he graduated from the University of Georgia in 2022 with a bachelor's degree in journalism. During his time in college, he served as the play-by-play announcer for the Cotuit Kettleers of the Cape Cod Baseball League (2021). Other credits include baseball play-by-play for Valdosta State University. Chris also broadcast baseball, softball and men's and women's soccer for Georgia-Gwinnett College. While at Georgia, Chris spent two years as the Sports Director for WUOG radio, Georgia's campus radio station. While there, he earned the prestigious WSB Radio Award, which honors the most outstanding student broadcaster in the state of Georgia.

He is the fourth generation of Carays to serve as an MLB play-by-play announcer, after his father Chip, his grandfather Skip and great-grandfather Harry. Chip is the current TV play-by-play voice for the St. Louis Cardinals on Bally Sports Midwest. Skip most notably called games for the Atlanta Braves from 1976-2008. Harry was a Ford C. Frick Award recipient (1989) for his contributions in broadcasting with the St. Louis Cardinals (1945-1969), Chicago White Sox (1971-1981) and Chicago Cubs (1982-1997), and also broadcast one season for the Athletics in 1970. Chris also has an identical twin brother, Stefan, who worked alongside him in Amarillo for two years.

A Florida native, Caray graduated from Saint Augustine High School and later from the University of Georgia in 2022. His family members include his parents, Chip and Susan, brothers Stefan (26) and Tristan (17), and sister, Summerlyn (28). Chris is single and splits time living in Las Vegas and Scottsdale, Arizona.

DALLAS BRADEN

Television Analyst

Dallas Braden enters his ninth season as an A's television color commentator after spending 2017 as a pre- and postgame host for NBC Sports California.

Braden was Oakland's 24th round pick in 2004 and made his Major League debut with the A's in 2007. In his five-year playing career—all with Oakland—he compiled a 26-36 record to go along with a 4.16 career ERA. The highlight of Braden's playing career came on May 9, 2010, when he threw the 19th perfect game in MLB history against the Tampa Bay Rays on Mother's Day.

After retiring in 2014, Braden joined ESPN as a studio and color analyst. He left ESPN in 2017 to join NBC Sports California. Braden has also co-hosted the Baseball is Dead podcast for the last nine years as well the new Beyond The Dugout podcast centered around the Athletics players.

A native of Stockton, Calif., Braden resides in Simi Valley, Calif., with his wife, Meg, their daughters Kinslee, Marlee, Wylee, and his grandmother Peggy.

CHRIS TOWNSEND

Host and Senior Broadcast Producer

Chris Townsend enters his eighth season as Host and Senior Broadcast Producer for A's Cast. In this role, he is responsible for creating and delivering multimedia A's content across multiple platforms.

Townsend also hosts A's Cast Live, the A's pre- and postgame shows and is an in-studio host during the broadcasts. Fans will continue to be able to engage with him during the games on his social media channels.

Townsend has worked in numerous capacities covering the A's, from prior roles in both TV and radio. He joins the A's after working for a number of local sports companies, including Oakland Raiders, 95.7 The Game, KNBR 680 and CSN Sports Bay Area. Chris has lived in the Bay Area for more than 25 years after attending San Jose State and playing baseball for the Spartans.

His grandfather Bob Elliott was the first third baseman in baseball history to win the MVP in 1947. Elliott was a seven-time All-Star during his 15-year career. He also was the manager of the Kansas City Athletics in 1960.

SHOOTY BABITT

Analyst

Shooty Babitt enters his 23rd season as a pre- and postgame analyst, and his 19th season as a member of the A's broadcast team on NBC Sports Bay Area and California. Before joining NBC, Babitt worked for Fox Sports as an analyst.

A former 25th-round selection by the A's in the 1977 MLB Draft, Babitt played for the A's in 1981 and remains in the organization as a professional scout.

STEVE SAX

Analyst

Steve Sax returns for his second season as a member of the A's broadcast team. The five-time All-Star was named National League Rookie of the Year in 1982 as a member of the Los Angeles Dodgers. He played for the Dodgers (1981-88), New York Yankees (1989-91), and Chicago White Sox (1992-93) before playing for the A's in 1994.

After his retirement from baseball in 1994, Steve contributed commentary on ESPN and as Major League Baseball analyst for Fox Sports' Prime Time. Steve is the author of the book Shift, a motivational and inspirational book that outlines action steps to change your mindset and to become a success. In 2013, Steve was the first base coach for the Arizona Diamondbacks. From 2014 through 2023, Steve was a host on MLB Network Radio. Steve has two children, Lauren and John.

JOSÉ REYNOSO

Spanish Radio

Former River Cats Spanish-language broadcaster José Reynoso will serve as the A's primary Spanish-language play-by-play broadcaster for the second consecutive season.

Reynoso has worked as an on-air personality on radio and TV in the Central Valley, Bay Area, and Sacramento region since the early '70s, also producing radio and television commercials for various state agencies, companies and community organizations. He has also served as play-by-play and color commentator for Sacramento Knights Indoor Soccer, a bilingual boxing ring announcer, and spent nine seasons as the Spanish play-by-play voice of the Sacramento River Cats. In 2016, he was the public address announcer for all matches of the historic 100th year of the Copa America at Levi's Stadium.

A'S BROADCASTS

NBC SPORTS CALIFORNIA: A's games will be televised exclusively by NBC Sports California for the 18th consecutive season. Jenny Cavnar and Chris Caray will continue to share play-by-play duties for the third straight year and Dallas Braden returns for his ninth season as color commentator. NBCSCA will simulcast A's Cast pre- and postgame shows before and after each game.

TALK 650 KSTE: Talk 650 KSTE returns for its second season as the flagship station of the A's radio network and will broadcast all regular season and Spring Training games. Ken Korach returns for his 31st season in the booth, his 21st as the A's lead broadcaster. Johnny Doskow is back for his fourth season and Chris Caray will also call selected games in addition to his television duties.

SPANISH RADIO: La Ranchera KVMX (92.1 FM & 105.5 FM) will be the home of A's spanish radio broadcasts in 2026. The slate is scheduled to include 74 games, including two road games in San Francisco and three in San Diego. José Reynoso returns for his second season as the Spanish voice of the A's.

A'S CAST: A's Cast is a free streaming service that allows Northern California A's fans to listen to 24/7 coverage of the A's, including complete pre- and postgame shows, breaking news, podcasts, game broadcasts and re-broadcasts, Minor League coverage and more. A's Cast is available on-line at athletics.com/ascast. Fans can also download the iHeartRadio app and search for "A's Cast." Fans outside Northern California can access A's original programming and recorded content on-demand at athletics.com/podcast, and can access live A's games (not A's Cast) with MLB Audio.

SPRING TRAINING BEFORE ARIZONA

Before moving to Mesa for the first time in 1969, the A's trained in Florida. Following World War II, the Philadelphia A's settled in at West Palm Beach in 1946. The team moved to Kansas City for the 1955 season, but remained at West Palm Beach until moving to Bradenton in 1963. The A's spent six years there, including 1968 when the club moved to Oakland.

The Philadelphia A's first spring appearance in Florida came in 1903 in Jacksonville. The franchise spent the spring in various other southern states during its first 24 years, including another stop in Jacksonville from 1914-18. In 1925, the club trained in Fort Myers and would spend 12 seasons there thorugh 1936. The A's had a three-year stay in Anaheim, Calif. from 1940-42, which included mid-spring trips to the Bay Area. World War II restrictions kept the team closer to home as they trained in Wilmington, Delaware in 1943 and Fredrick, Maryland from 1944-45.

SPRING TRAINING RIVALS

Squaring off against local rivals has been an Athletics Spring Training tradition since the days in Philadelphia.

The A's and Phillies first played in Philadelphia on April 6, 1903, a 2-0 Phillies win in 10 innings at Columbia Park. The two teams would square off in Philadephia nearly every year from 1903-54 except 1916-18, 1920, 1938, 1941-42 and 1944. In addition to games prior to the regular season, the two clubs occasionally met during the regular season and following the regular season.

Following the move to Kansas City in 1955, the A's and Phillies met for two final games in Philadelphia on April 9 and 10, 1955. In 1956, the Kansas City A's traveled to St. Louis at the end of the spring for two games against the Cardinals, The two clubs met again in 1957 at St. Louis and 1958 in Kansas City. After a five-year break, the A's and Cardinals played in Kansas City prior to the season from 1964-66.

The club moved to Oakland in 1968 and the A's began playing Spring Training games against the Giants in the Bay Area in 1983. From 1983 to 2024, the A's went 51-45-2 against San Francisco, including 21-18 in the Coliseum, 18-20-2 at Oracle Park and 12-7 at Candelstick Park.

A'S IN THE COMMUNITY

The A's are proud of their long history of giving back to their local community, a practice they have continued in the Greater Sacramento region. As the club looks forward to its future in Las Vegas, it has expanded the scope of its involvement to Southern Nevada as well. The A's believe in the power of sports to unite, inspire, and uplift. From youth programs to nonprofit partnerships and civic engagement, the goal is to create meaningful experiences and opportunities both on and off the field.

SACRAMENTO

Youth Baseball and Softball

PLAY BALL Weekend: In collaboration with the Sacramento River Cats, the A's hosted their PLAY BALL Weekend event at Alyce Norman-Bryte Playfields on June 14. Hundreds of kids and their families attended a morning of free, family-friendly activities, including baseball and softball skills stations, games, giveaways, face painting, and more. The A's supported more than 600 youth through special events with West Sacramento Little League and local organizations.

Nonprofit Partner of the Game

Starting in the second half of the season, the A's Nonprofit Partner of the Game program featured a different Sacramento-area nonprofit at each home game. Each organization had the opportunity to host a table on the concourse; receive 30 tickets to the game; and benefit from a dedicated social media post, a PA announcement highlighting their mission, and mentions during broadcast and radio coverage.

Community Tickets

Throughout the season, local nonprofits, schools, military organizations, and community groups received complimentary tickets to A's home games through the A's Community Ticket Program, in partnership with the Commissioner's Community Initiative and the MLB Players Give Back Program. In total, the A's distributed 31,917 tickets, valued at $85,000.

Player Visits

A's players visited several nonprofits throughout the season where they interacted with students, hospital patients, and rescue animals.

LAS VEGAS

Youth Baseball and Softball

The A's provided a donation to every youth recreation baseball and softball league in Nevada, totaling more than $100,000 to help make baseball and softball more accessible for all Nevadans.

Community Engagement

From supporting local trunk or treats, to holiday festivities and beyond, the A's coordinated community engagement opportunities with more than 180 nonprofit organizations, providing more than $500,000 in monetary donations, $70,000 in in-kind donations, and four player visits.

Volunteering

Lasting impact is created not only through financial investment but through showing up, building relationships, and working alongside the organizations that serve our community every day. The A's facilitated five volunteer events in which front office employees supported the mission of local organizations which equated to 1,481 meals packed, 32 classroom-in-a-box school supply kits assembled, and 600 Thanksgiving meals distributed.
